MEDIA GUIDELINES

•Thank you for covering the University of Arkansas in its AutoZone Liberty Bowl appearance. We hope you will respect the players and coaches in their time of enjoying bowl activities or relaxing in the privacy of the team hotel. There will be ample scheduled interview opportunities during the week. Thank you for your cooperation.

•All requests for game day credentials must be made online via the online form located at www.AutoZoneLibertyBowl.org by Friday, Dec. 18, 2009.

•UA Associate AD Kevin Trainor, Associate MRD Zack Higbee, Assistant MRD Molly O'Mara will be available to help you throughout the week. The UA SID staff will be housed at The Peabody Hotel (901) 529-4000.

•A more detailed interview schedule regarding practices will be released from the Arkansas Media Relations Office prior to the bowl game.

•Four formal press conferences are scheduled for bowl week. Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino will be at the head coaches press conference on Dec. 28, 2009, and Jan. 1, 2010. Arkansas defensive coordinator Willy Robinson and four defensive players will be available at a press conference on Wednesday, Dec. 30, 2009. Arkansas offensive coordinator and four offensive players will be available at a press conference on Thursday, Dec. 31. All press conferences will be held at the Embassy Suites (1022 S. Shady Grove Road, 901-312-6566) at times to be announced.

•Arkansas players and coaches ARE NOT available for interviews at the team hotel. Any exceptions to the rule would occur only in extenuating circumstances and must be previously approved by a member of the UA Media Relations Department. Media members wishing to follow the Razorbacks at official bowl functions should consult the media schedule.

•Arkansas players and coaches ARE NOT available for interviews outside of scheduled press conferences and post practice interview times. Only video and photo will be permitted at all other bowl functions throughout the week.

ARKANSAS TO MEET EAST CAROLINA IN AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

Arkansas will make its ninth bowl appearance in the last 12 years when the Razorbacks face the Conference USA Champion East Carolina Pirates in the 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The two teams will meet on Jan. 2, 2010 at 4:30 p.m. CT at the Liberty Bowl (62,830). The game will be televised nationally on ESPN.

UA BOWL HISTORY

Arkansas will be making its 37th trip to a post-season bowl game when the Hogs travel to Memphis, Tenn., to play East Carolina in the 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The Razorbacks are 11-22-3 in the previous 36 bowl appearances, including a 38-7 loss in 2008 to Missouri at the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in its last bowl appearance. Arkansas' last bowl victory came in 2003 when the Hogs topped Missouri 27-14 in the Independence Bowl.

UA JANUARY BOWL HISTORY

The Razorbacks will be playing in a January bowl game for the 24th time in school history. The Hogs hold an all-time record of 7-14-2 in the month of January with their last win, 27-6, over Texas in the 2000 Cotton Bowl. Arkansas tied its first appearance in a January bowl, 7-7, against Centenary on Jan. 1, 1934, at the Dixie Classic.

ARKANSAS - EAST CAROLINA SERIES HISTORY

FIRST MEETING

UA LIBERTY BOWL HISTORY

For the fourth time in school history, and the first time since 1987, Arkansas will conclude its season at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The Razorbacks will be playing in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl for the fourth time in school history which is the third-most of any bowl behind the Cotton Bowl (11) and Sugar Bowl (5). The Hogs are 0-3 in their previous three trips to the Liberty Bowl. UA faced Tennessee in 1971 followed by Auburn in 1984 and Georgia in 1987:

Year	Opponent	Score
12/20/71	Tennessee	L, 14-13
12/27/84	Auburn	L, 21-15
12/29/87	Georgia	L, 20-17

COACH PETRINO BOWL HISTORY

The 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl will mark the first bowl game the Razorbacks will play under Coach Bobby Petrino. Coach Petrino has a 2-2 overall record in the post-season during his six-year coaching career. While at Louisville, Petrino won the 2004 Liberty Bowl 44-40 over No. 10 Boise State. The Cardinals also claimed a BCS bowl win by topping No. 12 Wake Forest, 24-13, in the 2007 Orange Bowl. Under Coach Petrino, Louisville also made appearances in the GMAC and Gator bowls.

COACH PETRINO IN JANUARY

Bobby Petrino will coach his third January bowl game of his career when the Razorbacks take the field in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl on Jan. 2, 2010. He has a January bowl record of 1-1. While at Louisville, Petrino coached the Cardinals to a 24-13 victory over No. 12 Wake Forest in the 2007 Orange Bowl. The previous year, Louisville fell to No. 12 Virginia Tech, 35-24, in the 2006 Gator Bowl.

COACH PETRINO IN THE LIBERTY BOWL

Bobby Petrino's first bowl win as a head coach came against Boise State in the 2004 Liberty Bowl. Louisville defeated then-No. 10 Boise State, 44-40, in the highest scoring Liberty Bowl in history. Louisville trailed 34-21 with just over nine minutes remaining in the third quarter before getting the come-from-behind victory. Louisville safety Kerry Rhodes intercepted a pass in the end zone on the final play of the game to preserve the win. Louisville quarterback Stefan LeFors was named the game MVP as he went 18-of-26 for 193 yards and threw two touchdowns. He also had 12 carries for 76 yards and a touchdown.

ARKANSAS VS. EAST CAROLINA

Arkansas will meet East Carolina in football for the first time in school history. East Carolina head coach Skip Holtz grew up in Fayetteville, Ark., and is the son of former Arkansas head coach Lou Holtz. Lou Holtz coached the Razorbacks for seven seasons (1977-83) and owned a 60-21-2 record. He is just one of three head coaches to lead the Razorbacks to six consecutive bowl appearances. His first Razorback team recorded one of Arkansas' two 11-win seasons and posted one of the biggest upsets in school history with a 31-6 win over No. 2 Oklahoma in the 1978 Orange Bowl.

COACH PETRINO VS. EAST CAROLINA

University of Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino owns a 2-0 record against East Carolina. While at Louisville, Coach Petrino led the Cardinals to a 36-20 victory in 2003 and a 59-7 victory over the Pirates in 2004. In the 2004 meeting, Eric Shelton ran for five touchdowns, which are the most any player has ever had in a game under Coach Petrino.

2009 TEAM NOTES

The Razorbacks finished the regular season with a 7-5 overall record and won four of their last five games.

Arkansas finished 6-1 at home in 2009 and won each of its last five games to do so. The home win streak is tied for the third-longest in the SEC and for the 15th-longest in the nation.

Currently, Arkansas leads the SEC in scoring offense (37.3), passing offense (303.3), passing touchdowns (31) and red zone offense (96 pct.). The Razorbacks have never finished a season leading the SEC in scoring or passing offense.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

Arkansas is +13 in turnover margin this season after finishing the 2008 campaign -9, which ranked 102nd nationally. Arkansas is currently second in the SEC and seventh nationally in turnover margin. The turnaround is the second-largest nationally from last season in terms of rankings (Ohio currently sixth and was 110 in 2008).

The Razorbacks have outscored opponents 118-17 following turnovers this season.

Arkansas is tied for first nationally in red zone offense as the Razorbacks have converted on 45-of-47 (96 pct.) trips inside the red zone (35 touchdowns, 10 field goals). Arkansas is also 12th nationally and is fourth in the SEC in red zone defense as it has allowed opponents to convert on only 29-of-39 (74 pct.) trips.

This season, the Razorbacks' schedule has been one of the toughest in the nation. According to NCAA rankings, the 2009 slate is the third-toughest nationally. The Razorbacks have faced six ranked opponents this year (AP or USA Today Coaches').

Arkansas has thrown for 300-or-more yards in nine of 24 games under head coach Bobby Petrino. Prior to his arrival, Arkansas had thrown for 300-or-more yards 16 times in school history.

RYAN MALLETT

The Razorbacks have scored 40-or-more points in seven games this season. The only other time UA scored 40-or-more points in seven games or more in a season was 2007 (seven times). Against Eastern Michigan, Arkansas scored 63 points which is tied for the highest total by any SEC team in a game this season.

Earlier this year, Arkansas defeated No. 17 Auburn 44-23. Auburn was the highest ranked opponent the Razorbacks have defeated under Bobby Petrino (No. 19 Tulsa, 30-23; No. 20 Auburn, 25-22 in 2008).

This season, Arkansas scored more points against Texas A&M (47) than it has any game against the Aggies and more against Auburn (44) than the Razorbacks had in any game against the Tigers.

Prior to 2009 August practices, the squad selected its captains for the 2009 season. They are Ryan Mallett (RSo., QB), Michael Smith (RSr., TB), DeMarcus Love. (Jr., OT), Malcolm Sheppard (Sr., DT), Adrian Davis (Sr., DE) and Wendel Davis (Sr., LB). It is believed Sheppard is the first two-time captain at Arkansas since Frank Broyles began coaching in 1958.

QUARTERBACKS

Ryan Mallett leads the SEC in total offense and ranks 15th nationally (282.2). He also leads the league in passing 285.2 and ranks eighth nationally. He leads the league and ranks seventh nationally in passing touchdowns (29). Mallett is second in the SEC and seventh in the nation in pass efficiency (157.8).

Ryan Mallett is the only SEC quarterback to have thrown for 400-or-more yards in a game this season (twice) and he leads the league in 300-yard passing performances (five).

Ryan Mallett is doing more than averaging a record every time he sets foot on the field. In 12 games as a Razorback, he has matched or broken 16 different school records.

Ryan Mallett has thrown a touchdown in 11 of 12 games as a Razorback and in 13 of his 15 collegiate starts. He has thrown for multiple touchdowns in six of 12 starts as a Razorback and seven of 15 collegiate starts.

In his 15 collegiate starts, Ryan Mallett has thrown for 200-or-more yards 12 times (11 as a Razorback), 300-or-more yards five times (all as a Razorback) and 400-or-more yards twice (vs. UGA and Troy, 2009).

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Ryan Mallett has thrown only seven interceptions this season and has not thrown one in six of 12 games. He set a school record with 141 attempts without an interception before throwing one late in the first half against Troy.

Ryan Mallett owns a 10-5 collegiate record as a starting quarterback. During the 2007 season at Michigan, he was 3-0 with victories against Notre Dame, Penn State and Minnesota. He is 7-5 at Arkansas with victories over Missouri State, Texas A&M, Auburn, Eastern Michigan, South Carolina, Troy and Mississippi State.

Against Mississippi State, Ryan Mallett broke or matched three different Arkansas records. He set the school record for passing touchdowns (28) and touchdown accountability in a season (30). He also matched his own school record for passing touchdowns in a game (5).

Ryan Mallett was 21-of-39 for 408 yards and five touchdowns against Georgia, which was his second start as a Razorback. His 408 yards were a UA single-game record as were his five passing touchdowns.

Arkansas quarterback Ryan Mallett made his first appearance in 658 days in the Arkansas season opener. His last appearance prior to the Missouri State game came on Nov. 17, 2007, against Ohio State. In the fall of 2008, Mallett got a lot of work in on Sunday nights as he had 455 reps during those workouts.

In the season opener, UA quarterbacks combined to go 30-of-41 for 447 yards with three touchdowns. The effort marked the highest single-game passing total in school history and the first game in which the Razorbacks have ever thrown for 400-or-more yards.

RUNNING BACKS

Broderick Green is tied for fifth in the SEC with 12 touchdowns this season. Ten of Green's 11 rushing touchdowns have come in his last eight games and he has rushed for two touchdowns in three games this season, including two of the last five outings.

Against Troy, Ronnie Wingo, Jr. took a reception 83 yards for a touchdown and also had a 16-yard rushing touchdown. The reception was the longest by a Razorback this season and the sixth-longest touchdown reception in school history. Earlier this season, Wingo, Jr. scored on a 62-yard carry against Texas A&M. He is averaging 54 yards per touchdown.

RONNIE WINGO JR.

Against Eastern Michigan, Broderick Green had a 99-yard touchdown run in the second quarter on a one-play drive. The run was the longest by a Razorback from scrimmage in school history and just the second scoring run of 90-or-more yards. It was the longest since Billy Moore ran for 90 yards and a touchdown against Tulsa in 1962. It was also the longest for any player coached by Bobby Petrino.

Arkansas running backs have combined for 39 receptions for 436 yards this season (11.2 yards per reception) after averaging 8.7 yards per reception in 2008 (46 receptions for 402 yards).

In July of 2009, the NCAA granted Broderick Green a waiver to compete immediately for the Razorbacks. Green transferred to Arkansas in the spring of 2009 after spending two seasons at Southern California. He was a redshirt freshman in 2007 and carried the ball 32 times for 168 yards and three touchdowns in 2008.

Prior to kickoff of the Mississippi State game it was announced Michael Smith would miss the remainder of the season due to a hamstring injury. Smith played in 39 games (14 starts) and carried the ball 359 times for 2,018 yards and 16 touchdowns. He also had 53 career receptions for 529 yards and three touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Arkansas opened the LSU game with the following players on offensive line: OT Ray Dominguez, OG Wade Grayson, C Seth Oxner, OG Mitch Petrus, OT DeMarcus Love. UA has used four different lineups to start a game this season.

Through 12 games, UA has allowed 24 sacks. In 12 games in 2008, the Razorbacks had allowed 46. Arkansas did not allow a sack in two games this season (vs. Missouri State and Eastern Michigan).

Anthony Oden made his first start as a Razorback at Alabama. He was the first true freshman to start on the offensive line since Shawn Andrews started in 2001. Both Oden and Andrews made their first starts at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Seth Oxner started the season opener for the Razorbacks at center marking the first time a player other than Jonathan Luigs, had done so in 41 games. The last time Luigs did not start a game at center was against Ole Miss on Nov. 12, 2005.

RECEIVERS AND TIGHT ENDS

This season, Arkansas has had five different players (Joe Adams, Jarius Wright, Greg Childs, Cobi Hamilton and D.J. Williams) combine for nine different 100-yard receiving games. Arkansas is the only team in the league with five different players to have a 100-yard receiving game this year. The Razorbacks are also the only team in the SEC with three players who have had two-or-more 100-yard receiving games in 2009 (Childs, Wright, Adams).

The chart below shows how many different receivers have had at least 100-yards in a game at each SEC school in 2009:

Arkansas	5
South Carolina	3
Alabama	2
Auburn	2
Florida	2
Georgia	2
Mississippi State	2
Ole Miss	2
Tennessee	1

D.J. WILLIAMS

Greg Childs has had a touchdown reception in six of the last 11 games. He and Joe Adams lead the team with seven touchdown receptions this season, which ties for fifth in the SEC and ties for the fifth-highest single-season total in Arkansas history. Last season, D.J. Williams and Andrew Davie led the Razorbacks with three touchdown receptions on the year.

Due to medical reasons, Joe Adams missed three games this season. In the last five games since his return, Adams has had 12 catches for 237 yards and six touchdowns. He has also run the ball four times for 17 yards and a touchdown.

Joe Adams has made at least one catch in each of his 21 career games. Adams and London Crawford were the only two receivers to have one catch in each of the Razorbacks' 12 games in 2008.

London Crawford returned to action against Auburn after suffering a broken right collarbone in the season opener against Missouri State. He made starts in four of UA's last seven games (at Florida and Ole Miss, South Carolina and Troy).

ADRIAN DAVIS

Against Georgia, Greg Childs had five catches for 140 yards and two touchdowns, which was the first 100-yard receiving game of his career. Jarius Wright finished with four catches for 108 yards and a touchdown. The Georgia game marked the first time UA had two 100-yard receivers in the same game since the Tulsa contest in 2008 (D.J. Williams and Wright).

Lucas Miller returned to action and started the game at Alabama after suffering a broken collarbone during practice on Aug. 20. Miller had a career game late last season against Mississippi State as he finished with 10 catches for 201 yards and a career-long 87-yard touchdown reception. His 201 yards rank as the second-highest single-game total in school history and his reception was the longest by any receiver on a Coach Petrino team.

Tight end Chris Gragg missed the season after suffering a dislocated left ankle during practice on Aug. 12. Following Gragg's injury UA coaches moved Colton Nash from defense to tight end.

DEFENSIVE LINE

UA opened the LSU game with the following on defensive line (Damario Ambrose, DeQuinta Jones, Malcolm Sheppard, Adrian Davis). Jones was making the third start of his career and UA has used six different lineups to start a game this season.

Defensive tackle Malcolm Sheppard is tied for 10th in the SEC with 11 tackles for loss this season. His career total (37) ties for third in school history. Sheppard has led the Razorbacks in tackles for loss each of the last two seasons.

Malcolm Sheppard has had at least half of a tackle for a loss in 17 of his last 20 games. During the span, Sheppard has had 23 tackles behind the line for a combined loss of 85 yards. In 2008, he had a tackle for a loss in nine of 12 games.

Adrian Davis leads all Razorbacks in career sacks with 13.5. Davis needs one more to enter the school's career chart (Randy Garner is ninth in school history, 14.5, 1997-2000).

LINEBACKERS

UA's starting linebackers for the LSU game were Jerico Nelson, Wendel Davis and Jerry Franklin. Franklin and Davis lead the team this season with 84 and 79 tackles, respectively. Nelson ranks fourth on the squad in tackles with 69.

Against Eastern Michigan, Freddy Burton had the first interception of his career and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. It was the first interception return for a touchdown since Antwain Robinson took one 30 yards against Mississippi State in 2007.

Jerry Franklin returned a fumble 85 yards in the second quarter of the Texas A&M game. It was his first fumble recovery of the season and third of his career, and the first touchdown of his career. It was the first fumble recovery for a touchdown by a Razorback since Antwain Robinson returned one 80 yards against Texas last season.

RUDELL CRIM

SECONDARY

Against LSU, Ramon Broadway, Elton Ford, Matt Harris and Rudell Crim started in the secondary. Harris leads the secondary and ranks third on the team with 71 tackles this season.

Elton Ford returned to action at Alabama and has started each of the last eight games. Ford missed the final four games of the 2008 season and dressed but did not play the first two games this year. As a true freshman last season, Ford earned the starting position at free safety for the first eight games before breaking three vertebrae in his neck during the Ole Miss game. Ford spent the next 3 1/2 months wearing a neck brace to restrict his movement. He was cleared for non-contact drills in the spring of 2009. After nearly 10 months, the first day of full contact drills for the Razorbacks was Aug. 10, 2009.

Cornerback Isaac Madison suffered a knee injury during August drills. During a scrimmage on Aug. 15, Madison tore the ACL in his left knee that caused him to miss the 2009 season.

After receiving a medical redshirt in 2008 due to a hernia and a hamstring injury, Jerell Norton returned to action against Missouri State. Norton was the only returning member of the secondary who had started a game prior to 2008 as he had seven starts during the 2007 season.

DENNIS JOHNSON

SPECIAL TEAMS

Against LSU, Dennis Johnson returned four kickoffs for 75 yards to bring his season total to 1,015, which broke the single-season school record he set last year (905 yards on 41 returns). Johnson's effort also added to his career total (1,920), which is also an Arkansas record.

Dennis Johnson ranks sixth in the SEC and ranks 28th nationally with an average of 26 yards per kickoff return this season. Johnson has had four kickoff returns of 50-or-more yards this season.

Dennis Johnson returned the season opening kickoff 91-yards for a touchdown to join Clemson's C.J. Spiller as the only two players in the nation to return a kick for a touchdown to start the year for their team. Johnson's return for a touchdown was the second in his career (Tulsa, 2008, 96 yards). It was the first game-opening kickoff return for a touchdown by a Razorback since Felix Jones went 100 yards against Ole Miss in 2006.

THE SCHEDULE

Arkansas played one of the most demanding regular season schedules in the nation in 2009. Five Razorback opponents were listed in the Associated Press Top 25 (all in the top 13). The Razorbacks were on the road at No. 1 Florida, No. 5 Alabama, No. 8 Ole Miss, No. 11 LSU and in September, Arkansas hosted No. 13 Georgia (all ranking based on preseason).

East Carolina will be the eighth team Arkansas has faced this year that reached a bowl game in 2008. Two of the eight appeared in BCS bowl games and five won their 2008 bowl matchups.

Arkansas' schedule included games against teams that have won each of the last three national championships (Florida 2006, '08; LSU 2007).

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS

Ending the 2009 season in Memphis, Tenn., will be fitting for the Razorbacks as the athletic department has been celebrating 100 Years of Razorbacks this season. Legend says, following a 16-0 Arkansas win against LSU in Memphis, the team returned home and then-head coach Hugo Bezdek told the crowd his team played "like a wild band of Razorback hogs." UA had formerly been known as the Cardinals. The Arkansas athletic department began the year-long celebration with a community-wide event on July 21, 2009.

Notes on Awards

Ryan Mallett became the first Manning Award finalist in school history.

The 2009 season marked the first time in school history the UA offense had a player on the watch lists for the O'Brien, Mackey and Doak Walker Awards all in the same season. Arkansas was one of eight schools nationally to have a player on all three lists in 2009 (Ohio State, Virginia Tech, Oregon, LSU, Oklahoma, Florida and Notre Dame).

Ryan Mallett was the only quarterback in the SEC to be named offensive player of the week twice outright in 2009.

THE COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH BOBBY PETRINO

Bobby Petrino has wasted little time showing Razorback fans and the rest of the college football world why he ranks among the most successful coaches in NCAA Bowl Sub-division football.

In just his second season at Arkansas, the Razorback offense has rewritten nearly every school passing record and for the first time since joining the league, UA leads the SEC in scoring and passing offense.

Petrino's 2008 and 2009 teams own the top two spots in each of the following Arkansas single-season categories: points, passing yards, passing yards per game and passing touchdowns.

Petrino's collegiate head coaching resume includes leading his teams to five bowl game appearances, including a victory in the Bowl Championship Series' 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl in his ultra-successful four-year tenure at the University of Louisville.

Petrino blends 22 years of collegiate coaching experience with stints in the National Football League as both a head coach and assistant coach to total 26 years of coaching experience. In addition to Louisville, Petrino's college experience includes stops at Arizona State University, the University of Nevada, Utah State University and Auburn University. His NFL coaching tenures have come with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Atlanta Falcons.

Long before his first game as head football coach at the University of Arkansas, Petrino's positive impact on a tradition-rich Arkansas program and a passionate Razorback fan base was abundantly evident. From the boisterous welcome offered from assembled fans at a late-night nationally-televised press conference announcing his hiring, to the record attendance numbers at Razorback Clubs in all corners of the state, there was no question that Petrino's arrival in Fayetteville energized and unified the state behind their beloved Razorback football program.

Petrino's fingerprints on the Razorback football program were also recognizable on the field in his first season as the Razorbacks' head coach. Arkansas showed vast improvement in all phases of the game from the season opener to the memorable season finale.

Petrino's commitment to an aggressive offensive approach, execution, balance, discipline and the sound principles of defense had clearly taken hold at Arkansas.

Petrino's reputation for engineering high-octane and quick-strike offenses is well deserved. His teams have consistently ranked among the nation's best in total offense and scoring. Although sometimes perceived as a coach that focuses primarily on the passing game, in reality Petrino adheres to the philosophy of balance between offensive production on the ground and through the air. Consider that in the last 11 years of his college coaching career spent as a head coach, an offensive coordinator or both, Petrino's offenses have boasted 78 100-yard rushers and 50 300-yard passers. That equates to 128 defining offensive individual performances in 144 total games.

In his coaching career, Petrino has worked with countless players who went on to play professionally, including an impressive list of NFL quarterbacks. As a head coach, he helped develop quarterbacks Stefan LeFors (2003-04) and Brian Brohm (2004-06) at Louisville. As a coordinator or assistant, he tutored Jason Campbell at Auburn (2002), Chris Redman at Louisville (1998), Jake Plummer at Arizona State (1993), and Doug Nussmeier (1990-91) and John Friesz (1989) at Idaho.

On Dec. 11, 2007, Petrino was named the 30th head coach in Razorback football history. The announcement marked Petrino's return to college football, the very landscape that put him on the coaching map.

Prior to his tenure as the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007 season, Petrino coached four seasons (2003-06) at Louisville.

In 2006, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 12-1 record, including a 24-13 win over nationally-ranked Wake Forest in the BCS FedEx Orange Bowl. Louisville vaulted to as high as No. 3 in the polls during the season and finished with a final No. 6 national ranking in the Associated Press poll, the highest ranking in school history. Louisville had three victories over top-15 ranked teams, including wins over No. 15 Miami (31-7), No. 3 West Virginia (44-34) and No. 12 Wake Forest (24-13). The 12 victories also set a new school mark, breaking a record Petrino had held in part previously with 11 wins in 2004. The Cardinals won their first Big East Conference title, ranked second in the nation in total yards (475.3 yards per game) and fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). Louisville also led the Big East in pass offense average (290.0) and first downs (296).

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

In 2005, Petrino led Louisville into the Big East Conference and guided the Cardinals to a 9-3 record and their first New Year's Day Bowl game since 1991. Louisville ranked ninth in the nation in total offense (482.1) and third in the nation in scoring offense (43.4). The Cardinals scored at least 30 points in 11 of 12 games, including eight games of more than 40 points, four games of 50 or more points and three 60-point outings. Seven Cardinals earned All-Big East honors in the school's first year in the league, including Bronko Nagurski and Ted Hendricks Award winner Elvis Dumervil. Dumervil led the nation in sacks (20) and forced fumbles (10) on his way to consensus All-America honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation in scoring (14.4), scored 24 touchdowns and became the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1999.

Petrino's 2004 Louisville team went 11-1, won the Conference USA championship and beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, to end the season ranked No. 7. The Cardinals led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), surpassed 40 points nine times, scored 50 points seven times and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five-straight games.

The groundwork for the record-setting success to come was laid in Petrino's first season as a head coach at Louisville in 2003. Taking over a team that had finished 7-6 the season before, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 9-4 record and a GMAC Bowl berth. The nine wins were the most by a first-year Louisville coach. It didn't take long for Petrino to set the tone in his first collegiate coaching stint. In his first career game as a head coach, Petrino led Louisville to a 40-24 win over arch rival Kentucky. Louisville led the league and ranked among the nation's best in total offense, rushing and scoring. The Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9), 10th in rushing (228.2) and 15th in scoring offense (34.6) in Petrino's inaugural season. Louisville set six Conference USA records including the mark for total yards after the Cardinals raked up 779 yards, including 445 rushing yards, in a 66-45 win over Houston.

Prior to Louisville hiring him as its head coach, Petrino served one season as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2002. In his one season with the Tigers, Auburn went 9-4, including three wins over top-10 ranked opponents, and won a share of the SEC Western Division title.

Before going to Auburn, he spent three seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was the quarterbacks coach in 1999 and 2000, and the offensive coordinator in 2001.

In his first stint at Louisville, he was the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals in 1998. In that one season, Louisville was the top-ranked NCAA Division I-A team in scoring and total offense while recording the biggest turnaround in the nation. The Cardinals improved from 1-10 in 1997 to 7-5 in '98.

The Helena, Mont., native was the offensive coordinator at Utah State for three years (1995-97) before going to Louisville. While in Logan, Utah, he helped Utah State set school records by averaging 468.5 yards of total offense and 317.5 yards passing during the 1996 season. Prior to his arrival, USU averaged just more than 300 yards per game in total offense. In 1996, the Aggies also racked up a school-record 273 first downs, an average of nearly 25 first downs a game.

In 1994, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Nevada. The Wolfpack ranked second in the nation in passing (330) and total offense (500) per game, and was third in the nation with 37.6 points a game. During his one-year stint at Nevada, the Wolfpack boasted 10 100-yard rushing performances and six 300-yard passing efforts. Nevada posted a 9-2 record and won a share of the Big West title.

In 1992 and '93, he was the quarterbacks coach at Arizona State where he assisted in the development of future All-American and NFL star Jake Plummer. While with the Sun Devils, Petrino also worked with then-ASU quarterback and current UA quarterbacks coach Garrick McGee.

Prior to his two years at Arizona State he was the quarterbacks coach (1989) and offensive coordinator (1990 & 1991) for three seasons at the University of Idaho. He was the wide receivers coach at Weber State in 1987 and '88.

Petrino literally grew up in the coaching profession. His father, Bob Petrino Sr., coached at Carroll College in Helena, Mont., for 26 seasons, earning 163 victories and 15 conference titles. As a child, Petrino Jr. would race after school to the practice field to observe his father during his legendary career.

Bobby Petrino officially started his coaching career as a graduate assistant for his father at Carroll College in 1983. After a graduate assistant stint as quarterbacks coach at Weber State in 1984, Petrino returned to be the offensive coordinator for his father in 1985-86.

Carroll had the top-ranked offense in the NAIA ranks in both of his seasons, thanks in large part to the play of Bobby Petrino's younger brother Paul, who was a four-year starter at quarterback at Carroll College. Paul Petrino now serves as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Before Bobby Petrino coached for his father, he played football for him at Carroll College. Petrino played quarterback and twice earned NAIA All-America honors. He led the Fighting Saints to three straight Frontier Conference championships and was named the league's most valuable player in 1981 and 1982. He also played four years of basketball at Carroll. Petrino earned a bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in mathematics from Carroll College in 1983.

Born March 10, 1961, Petrino and his wife, the former Becky Schaff, have four children: Kelsey, Nick, Bobby and Katie. Nick and Bobby are members of the Razorback football team.

EMBRACING ARKANSAS

In his time at Arkansas, Coach Petrino has reached out to the community, faculty and former players through numerous initiatives including the following:

Made a personal $100,000 commitment to the Razorback Foundation. Petrino's gift is believed to be the largest donation to the Razorback Foundation Annual Fund by a sitting Razorback head coach in school history.

Initiated a kickoff luncheon on August 14, 2009, that was attended by more than 950 fans. Coach Petrino was the featured speaker and coaches, football personnel and all 105 players attended. Two players sat at each table with fans. The plan is for the luncheon to continue in future seasons.

Asked to establish a weekly radio show, which is held Wednesday evenings throughout the fall. It was held at a local restaurant where fans can attend.

Studied and asked for consideration for a synthetic field surface to be installed at Razorback Stadium. The installation began immediately following our spring game and was completed prior to the 2009 season.

After reading an article discussing city budget issues, Coach Petrino utilized time that was allocated for team meetings during 2009 spring football to send the entire squad to the city library. The group spent part of an afternoon cleaning, stacking books and visiting with children.

Organized a ceremony at halftime of the 2009 Red-White game honoring the senior class from the past season and naming team award winners. He invited former players back to be a part of it and the following were on hand: Darren McFadden, Felix Jones, Shawn Andrews, Ken Hamlin, Quinn Grovey and Cedric Cobbs among others.

More than 500 faculty members were in attendance at the 2009 Arkansas spring game to participate in Faculty Appreciation Day. This was the second year the event was held and the attendance was nearly double that of last year.

Spoke to the "A" Club at a breakfast the morning of the 2009 spring game. More than 200 former Razorbacks from Seattle to Atlanta traveled to attend.

Made appearances at several other Razorback sporting events including men's and women's basketball games and baseball, including the College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

MIKE SUMMERS ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE

Mike Summers is in his 31st season as a collegiate coach and his second at Arkansas as assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

This season, the offensive line has shown considerable improvement as it has allowed only half the total of sacks than it did in 2009. It also has given UA quarterbacks time to develop the top-ranked passing offense in the SEC. Mitch Petrus was honored for his play as he was selected for the coaches All-SEC first-team.

In 2008, Summers tutored center Jonathan Luigs who was a finalist for the Rimington Trophy and an All-SEC selection.

Summers was on Petrino's staff all four seasons at Louisville (2003-06) and spent the 2007 season on Petrino's staff with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons as the offensive line coach.

In his last year at Louisville, three of his linemen earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey). Summers' line spearheaded the attack for a unit that ranked second in the nation in total offense (475.3 yards a game), seventh in passing (290.0) and 12th in rushing (185.3).

In 2005, guard Jason Spitz earned All-Big East honors, was a third-round NFL draft choice of Green Bay and started 13 games in 2006. Five other offensive players earned league honors, including tackle Travis Leffew.

His 2004 line helped Louisville set a school record with 3,005 rushing yards and 47 touchdowns while allowing only 20 sacks and leading the nation in total offense. Louisville also set school records for total offense (6,468 yards) and points scored (597) with six Cardinals earning first-team All-Conference USA honors.

In Summers' first season at Louisville, his line improved from allowing 46 sacks the year before (2002) to just 13. The Cardinals also set what was then a school rushing record, and ended the season fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9) and 10th in rushing (228.2).

Before going to Louisville, he spent two years at Ohio (2001-02) where his offense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing in 2002 (239.8) and No. 6 in 2001 (240.1). The Bobcats also allowed only 14 sacks in 2002 and 11 in 2001.

In 2000, he was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. From 1997-99, he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South, where his offense ranked fifth in the nation in rushing and second in the conference in total offense during his three seasons.

He was at Oregon State from 1991-96, where he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. The Beavers led the Pac-10 in rushing four straight years and he was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993.

He began his career at Kentucky (1979-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84), where he worked with the offensive line. He also spent six seasons at Northern Illinois (1985-90), coordinating an offense that set 51 school records.

Born June 16, 1956, the Lexington, Ky., native played defensive back at Georgetown (Ky.) College and earned his bachelor's in business administration in 1978.

He and his wife Kathy have a daughter, Amy, who is a Louisville graduate. Kathy is the daughter of legendary Kentucky basketball coach Joe B. Hall.

PAUL PETRINO OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / WIDE RECEIVERS

Paul Petrino, the younger brother of head coach Bobby Petrino, is in his second season as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Petrino was named a Broyles Award nominee in 2009, which is given annually to the top assistant in college football.

This season, the Razorbacks lead the SEC in scoring offense (37.3) and passing offense (303.3). In addition, quarterback Ryan Mallett has set or matched 16 different school records and leads the SEC in passing and total offense. Razorback wide receivers Greg Childs (71.8) and Joe Adams (61.4) also rank third and fifth in the SEC in receiving yards per game, respectively.

The offense was represented on the All-SEC teams in 2009 by the following players: Mitch Petrus (first team coaches, second AP), Ryan Mallett (second team AP and coaches), Joe Adams (second team AP) and D.J. Williams (second team coaches).

In 2008, the Razorbacks set the school record for passing yards (3,115) and produced the ninth 1,000-yard rusher in the history of the program when Michael Smith recorded 1,072 yards.

The younger Petrino coached with his brother at Louisville from 2003-06 and in 2007 with the Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League. He was the receivers coach in Atlanta after working the four previous years as offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Louisville. Playing for Petrino in Atlanta, Roddy White enjoyed the best season of his NFL career with 83 catches for 1,202 yards.

His teams at Louisville averaged 41.1 points a game over his four seasons, including 34.6 in 2003, 49.8 in 2004, 43.3 in 2005 and 37.8 in 2006.

He has 18 years of collegiate coaching experience in addition to coaching a year in the NFL.

While he was at Louisville, the Cardinals and Texas Tech were the only two schools in the nation to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense for four straight seasons (2003-06). In 50 games at Louisville, 41 of those victories, his teams scored 40 or more points 28 times, 50 or more 14 times and 60 or more seven times.

In 2006, when the Cardinals went 12-1, won the Big East Conference title, beat No. 12 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, 24-13, and finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation, Louisville was second in the country in total offense (475.3), seventh in passing (290.0) and fourth in scoring (37.8). One of his players, Harry Douglas, made 70 receptions and set a school record with 1,265 yards in earning first-team All-Big East honors.

In 2005, Louisville (9-3) was ninth in the nation in offense (482.1) and third in scoring (43.4) with six offensive players earning first-team all-conference honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation with 24 touchdowns while receiver Joshua Tinch was a first-team All-Big East selection and receiver Mario Urrutia was second in the nation in yards per catch.

The 2004 team, which won the Conference USA title, beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, finished 11-1, ended the year ranked No. 7 in the nation, led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five straight games.

The Cardinals set school records for total yards, rushing yards and points in a season (597) in 2004. Louisville scored 50 or more points seven times. Receiver J.R. Russell earned all-conference honors for the second straight season after catching 73 passes. Russell had 75 receptions for a school-record 1,213 yards in 2003, when the Cardinals went 9-4.

Petrino began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Carroll College in his hometown of Helena, Mont. He worked for his father, Bob, Sr., at Carroll in 1990 and 1991.

He moved to Idaho for the next three years (1992-94) where he coached receivers (1993-94), running backs (1992) and special teams. As running backs coach in '92, he coached Sherriden May, who earned All-America honors and led all I-AA players with 150 points scored while rushing for 1,111 yards.

He moved to Utah State for the next three seasons (1995-97) as receivers coach and special teams coordinator. In '95, receiver Kevin Alexander finished second in the nation in receptions and third in receiving yards.

In 1998, he went to Louisville for two years in his first stint on the Cardinal staff. In 1998, with Bobby coaching quarterbacks and Paul coaching receivers, UL set then-records for points (473), scoring average (39.4), touchdowns, passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts, completions and total offense.

As receivers coach and special teams coordinator, Louisville was 7-5 in 1998 and '99 and earned bowl bids both seasons. Under Petrino's watch, Arnold Jackson had 90 catches for 1,165 yards in '98 and 101 receptions for 1,209 yards in '99.

Petrino coached three wide receivers who set single-season yardage records at Louisville. Jackson totaled 1,209 yards in 1999, Russell broke the record in 2003 with 1,213 yards and Douglas set the record in 2006 with 1,265 yards.

From 2000-02, he was the quarterbacks coach at Southern Mississippi. In his three seasons, the Golden Eagles went 8-4, 6-5 and 7-6 with two bowl bids.

Born in Butte, Mont., on May 25, 1967, he was a four-year starter at quarterback for his father at Carroll College from 1985-88. He set 16 school records and earned Kodak All-America honors and was named the Football Gazette NAIA Division II Player of the Year as a senior. In his four seasons, Carroll was 36-6 and won four Frontier Conference titles. Petrino was an all-conference and all-region selection all four years and was a two-time All-American.

Petrino and his wife Maya have two daughters, Anne Mari and Ava, and a son, Mason. Anne Mari and Mason are twins.

WILLY ROBINSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR /
SECONDARY

Willy Robinson, a former defensive coordinator in the NFL and in college, is in his second season as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Arkansas.

Robinson has 31 years of coaching experience, including 12 as an assistant in the NFL and 19 years in the collegiate ranks.

The defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers in 2004, he was the secondary coach for the St. Louis Rams in 2006-07 where he coached former Razorback Darius Vinnett. He was the senior defensive assistant and secondary coach in New Orleans in 2005 after coaching the defensive backs for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2000-03. He was also the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks from 1995-98.

In 1999, he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State, where he coached the Pacific 10 Conference's top scoring and pass efficiency units. OSU was also No. 9 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (98.9), No. 30 in scoring defense (23.1) and No. 48 in total defense (355.6).

With the Rams in 2006, he helped St. Louis improve its pass defense to third-best in the NFC and eighth-best overall in the NFL, allowing only 189.7 passing yards a game, which was the lowest for St. Louis since 1998 (176.9).

While with the Seahawks, he helped Shawn Springs and Daryl Williams earn Pro Bowl berths.

Robinson coached the secondary at the University of Miami in 1994 before going with head coach Dennis Erickson to Seattle. Robinson also coached with Erickson at Oregon State and in San Francisco.

Before going to Miami, Robinson spent 14 years at Fresno State, his alma mater, under head coach Jim Sweeney. The Bulldogs advanced to six bowl games during his tenure. At Fresno, he coached the secondary (1980-86), outside linebackers (1987-89) and later the secondary again along with handling special teams (1990). In 1988, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and then served as sole defensive coordinator in 1992-93 before going to Miami for the 1994 season. Miami played for a national championship against Nebraska in the 1995 Orange Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State in 1978 and earned his first full-time position the following season as outside linebackers coach at San Jose State.

The Fort Carson, Colo., native played two seasons (1975-76) at the College of the Sequoias (Calif.) before transferring to Fresno State, where he played defensive back in 1977-78 and earned first-team All-Pacific Coast Conference honors as a junior and second-team honors as a senior.

Robinson is married to Susan and has two daughters, Brittany and Mallory, and a stepson, Morgan.

JOHN L. SMITH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR / OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

John L. Smith was hired in January of 2009 and is in his first season as special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach. Smith has 36 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 18 years as a head coach. With his addition to the Razorback staff, Smith and Bobby Petrino have worked together on the same coaching staff at four different schools (Idaho, Utah State, Louisville and Arkansas).

Smith has made an impact at Arkansas right away, as kickoff returner Dennis Johnson's average of 26.0 yards per return ranks sixth in the SEC and 28th nationally.

As a head coach, Smith posted a 132-86 overall record and produced six conference champions (two Conference USA, two Big West and two Big Sky). Twelve of his 18 teams participated in postseason play. Smith is one of 19 coaches in collegiate football history to take three different schools to a bowl game.

From 2003-06 Smith was the head coach at Michigan State where he led the Spartans to a 22-26 overall record. He was named the Big 10 Coach of the Year in 2003 by posting the most wins by a first-year head coach in school history with an 8-4 record. During his time in East Lansing, 41 of his student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Prior to Michigan State, Smith spent five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he led the Cardinals to then-unprecedented success. He posted a 41-21 record, including five-straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2000-01. The five bowl trips equaled the number of postseason appearances Louisville had made prior to his arrival and the five-consecutive winning seasons marked a first for the program.

Smith spent three seasons as head coach at Utah State prior to Louisville. He finished with a 16-18 record in three seasons after taking over a program that had produced only two winning seasons in the previous 15 years. Smith led the Aggies to consecutive Big West crowns in 1996-97. In 1997, Utah State earned a trip to the Humanitarian Bowl marking the second bowl appearance for the school since 1961.

Smith arrived at Utah State following six seasons at the University of Idaho where he became the winningest coach in school history. His six-year mark of 53-21 at Idaho included a 34-11 Big Sky Conference record and five postseason appearances.

Before becoming a head coach, Smith spent two years as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Washington State (1987-88) where he served under Dennis Erickson. He was also Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Wyoming during the 1986 season. Smith began his first stint at Idaho in 1982 where he served as Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for four years (1982-85).

Smith's coaching experience includes stops at Nevada (1977-81) and Montana (1972-76). During his tenure as defensive coordinator at Nevada, the Wolf Pack led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense in 1980. He began his coaching career in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Weber State.

A linebacker and a quarterback at Weber State, Smith earned Big Sky Conference scholar-athlete honors in 1971-72. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education with a minor in math in 1971. Smith earned a master's of science degree in physical education from the University of Montana in 1974.

Smith lettered in three sports – football, basketball and track – while attending Bonneville High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho. He is married to the former Diana Flora. They are parents of three children, Nick, Kayse and Sam

BOBBY ALLEN

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Bobby Allen is in his 12th year on the staff at Arkansas, his second under head coach Bobby Petrino, and his third as the defensive line coach. A two-time co-defensive coordinator at Arkansas (1998 and 2000), he coached the cornerbacks in 2007 but coached the line in 2001 and 2008.

This year, Allen has focused his attention on the defensive tackles where he has tutored Malcolm Sheppard who is tied for 10th in the SEC in tackles for loss with 11.

Allen was a part of former head coach Houston Nutt's staff from 1998-2007. This is his 27th overall season as a collegiate coach. He coached the Razorback cornerbacks from 2003-07 along with the free safeties from 2003-04.

Under Allen's guidance, the Razorback secondary ranked among the best units in the nation in defending the pass in 2007. Arkansas led the SEC and was second in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 97.8. The Hogs ranked second in the SEC with 20 interceptions, including 11 by Allen's cornerback unit.

In addition, two UA cornerbacks, Michael Grant and Jerell Norton ranked in the top five of the conference's passes defended category. Grant led the SEC with 21 (1.62) passes broken up during the season while Norton ranked fourth with 15 (1.15). Norton led the team, tied for fourth in the SEC and tied for 40th in the nation with five interceptions (.38 per game) for 174 yards and a touchdown.

Grant led the cornerbacks and ranked fifth on the team with 75 tackles (61U, 14A). He also tacked on three interceptions for 15 yards. Grant's efforts earned him a spot on the All-SEC second team.

In 2006, cornerback Chris Houston, an honorable mention All-American, spent the season containing some of the best wide receivers in the nation. The junior held USC's Dwayne Jarrett to his lowest receiving output in 34 games and stifled other standouts, including Tennessee's Robert Meachum, Auburn's Courtney Taylor and Vanderbilt's Earl Bennett. Houston notched 45 tackles and a team-leading three interceptions for 129 yards and a touchdown. He also broke up a team-leading 13 passes.

In 2005, cornerbacks Michael Coe, Houston, Grant and Matterral Richardson finished first through fourth, respectively, on the team with a combined 29 passes broken up. Coe and Grant also tied for second on the club with three interceptions each, and those four had a total of 117 tackles, helping the Razorbacks rank 34th in the nation in total defense by allowing 341 yards per game.

In 2004, free safety Vickiel Vaughn was first on the team in tackles with 66 while freshman cornerback Darius Vinnett ranked fifth with 54 stops.

In 2003, UA ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference and 21st in the nation by holding opponents to 187.0 passing yards per game. The Razorbacks also intercepted 17 passes, the third-most in the league.

Since joining Arkansas' coaching staff on Dec. 11, 1997, Allen has served as defensive coordinator (1998, 2000), coached the inside linebackers (1998-99), the middle and strong side linebackers (both in 2002), and the defensive line (2001, 2008) before handling the cornerbacks and free safeties in 2003 and 2004. Prior to the 2008 season, Allen worked with cornerbacks exclusively (2005-07).

Allen has held or shared UA's defensive coordinator duties on two separate occasions. He served as co-defensive coordinator with Keith Burns in 1998 and shared the duties with John Thompson during the 2000 season. When Burns left UA following the 1999 regular season, Allen was named the Razorbacks' defensive coordinator for Arkansas' meeting with Texas in the 2000 Cotton Bowl.

In 1998, Allen helped direct a Razorback defensive unit that ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, 10th in turnover margin and 13th in scoring defense. In 2000, Allen helped guide a Razorback defense that allowed just 292.1 yards per game to lead the Southeastern Conference and rank 12th nationally in total defense.

Allen began his coaching career at Colorado where he served as a graduate assistant during the 1983 and 1984 seasons. After helping Minnesota to an Independence Bowl berth as a defensive secondary graduate assistant in 1985, Allen landed his first full-time position when he was named defensive coordinator at Drake, where he served from 1986 to 1988.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at Seneca Valley High School in Gaithersburg, Md., where he was named the Washington, D.C., area player of the year as a senior and also excelled in baseball and basketball. He went on to earn three varsity letters while playing three positions, kicker, quarterback and outside linebacker at Virginia Tech, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in marketing in 1983.

Born March 5, 1959, Allen is married to the former Marcela Garcia. The couple has one daughter, Daniela, and three sons, Christian, Brandon and Austin.

KIRK BOTKIN DEFENSIVE ENDS

Former Razorback tight end Kirk Botkin is in his second season as an assistant under Coach Bobby Petrino. In 2009, Botkin focused on the defensive ends after doing so in 2008 in addition to working with the special teams.

Under Botkin's watch, defensive end Adrian Davis leads the team in sacks and is one away from entering the Arkansas all-time career chart in the department.

Prior to Arkansas, Botkin spent the two previous years coaching linebackers and special teams at Louisiana-Monroe.

He spent four years playing in the NFL and has worked as a special teams coordinator for eight years, 2008 at Arkansas, two at ULM and the previous five at Jacksonville State University.

At ULM in 2007, he helped the Warhawks record their first non-losing season in 14 years (6-6) with a win at Alabama.

From 2001-05, he was an assistant at Jacksonville State under former Arkansas head coach Jack Crowe. He was the offensive tackles and tight ends coach from 2001-03 and linebackers coach and defensive consultant in 2004 and '05 while also working as special teams coordinator all five seasons. His last two years, he was also the assistant head coach. Highlights at JSU include winning I-AA Ohio Valley Conference titles in 2003 and 2004. He also coached an All-American punt returner and seven all-conference performers, including two at linebacker, four on the offensive line or at tight end, and one punter.

Special teams highlights include allowing no blocked punts at ULM while blocking 11 field goal or PAT attempts in 2006 and 2007, and an average of four punts and four field goal or PAT blocks a year in his five years at Jacksonville State.

The Baytown, Texas, native lettered at Arkansas from 1990-93. A team captain in '93, he was Arkansas' first All-Southeastern Conference selection, earning all-league honors as a tight end in 1992 and 1993. He was also named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

Botkin led the Hogs with 33 receptions for 257 yards in 1992 and had 23 catches for another 257 yards in 1993. For his career, he had 87 receptions for 819 yards and five touchdowns.

He helped Arkansas earn an Independence Bowl bid in 1991, he played in the 1993 Blue-Gray Game and ended his career seventh on Arkansas' career receptions list.

He spent four years in the NFL, including playing for Bill Parcells in New England (1994), Jim Mora in New Orleans (1994-95) and Bill Cowher in Pittsburgh (1996-97). He helped the Steelers win an AFC Central Division title and advance to the 1998 AFC Championship Game.

After an injury ended his career, he began his coaching career at his hometown high school of Robert E. Lee High in Baytown. He worked with the tight ends and receivers in 1999 before going to Rice where he coached tight ends as a graduate assistant in 2000.

Botkin is married to the former Rebecca Holloway of Hazen, Ark. They have three children Lane, Ty and Brynn.

TIM HORTON RUNNING BACKS/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Former Razorback Tim Horton is in his third season on the Arkansas coaching staff and his second under head coach Bobby Petrino. Horton is Arkansas' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator after serving as the running backs coach in 2007.

After returning to his alma mater on July 18, 2007, he has coached All-America running backs Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. McFadden was the Heisman Trophy runner-up and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. McFadden finished the 2007 season with a school-record 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns. Overall, Horton has coached a third of the nine Razorbacks in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season as Michael Smith recorded 1,072 in 2008.

This season, running back Broderick Green ranks sixth in the SEC with 12 touchdowns. Ten of Green's 11 rushing touchdowns came in the final eight games of the season. He also rushed for two touchdowns in three games in 2009.

Arkansas running backs have combined for 38 receptions for 417 yards this season (10.7 yards per reception) after averaging 8.7 yards per receptions in 2008.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

REGGIE JOHNSON

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Reggie Johnson is in his second year with the Razorbacks and is coaching the inside linebackers.

This season, Johnson's focus was the inside linebacker position. Linebacker Wendel Davis tallied 79 total tackles on the season, which ranks second on the team and 12th in the conference. Davis also ranked fourth on the team with 8.5 tackles for loss.

In 2008, Johnson oversaw the entire linebacker group, which included redshirt freshman Jerry Franklin who led the Razorbacks in tackles with 87 stops.

Johnson was on head coach Bobby Petrino's staff at Louisville from 2003-06 and remained on the Cardinals' staff in 2007.

The Hollandale, Miss., native coached the defensive line in 2003, the linebackers in 2004-05 and 2007, and the inside linebackers in 2006.

In his first season, Marcus Jones recorded a team-high 10 sacks and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. In 2004, his first year with the linebackers, Robert McCune led the team in tackles for the second straight season and was a first-team All-Conference USA pick. McCune was a fifth-round NFL Draft selection by Washington. Johnson also worked with Brandon Johnson, the team's second-leading tackler, who was a fifth round draft pick for the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2006, Johnson coached just the inside linebackers, including Nate Harris, who was the team's leading tackler. Harris signed a free-agent contract with Kansas City.

In 2007, Lamar Myles led the team with 128 stops after finishing second on the club in 2006. Myles along with Malik Jackson signed free agent deals with Jacksonville and Oakland, respectively.

Johnson was a four-year letterman at Louisville from 1987-90. His senior year, he helped the Cardinals finish 10-1-1 with a 34-7 victory over Alabama in the Fiesta Bowl. He was fourth on the team with 82 tackles.

He had a career-high 91 tackles as a junior in 1989 and ended his career with 252 tackles.

After earning his bachelor's in political science from Louisville in 1996, he began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at UL (1997- 98), earning his master's in athletic administration in 1998.

His first full-time coaching position was at Alabama A&M. He coached the defensive tackles in 1998 and '99, and in 2000 coached the inside linebackers and was special teams coordinator.

Johnson moved to Texas-El Paso where he coached defensive ends in 2001 and linebackers in 2002 before joining Petrino's staff at Louisville in 2003.

Johnson and his wife Eulice have two children, Sydney and Jordan.

At tight end in 2008, D.J. Williams set school single-game (10) and single-season (61) school records for receptions on his way to becoming the first John Mackey Award semifinalist in school history and the only sophomore among the eight.

Before returning to Arkansas, where Horton played from 1986-89, he was at Air Force for spring 2007, at Kansas State for the 2006 season and at Air Force for the seven previous years.

He came to Arkansas after taking the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coaching position at Air Force in January 2007. During the 2006 season, he was the running backs coach at Kansas State, helping the Wildcats earn a Texas Bowl appearance.

Prior to his one season at KSU, he spent seven seasons at Air Force (1999-2005). He was the receivers coach for six years (1999-2004) and the running backs coach for one.

He worked with former Falcon stars Matt Farmer, Ryan Fleming, Alec Messerall and Jason Brown.

Horton was recognized by the Colorado Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes as one of its coaches of the year in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Appalachian State in 1990 and helped guide the Mountaineers to a 67-32 record during his eight years, including Southern Conference championships in 1991 and 1995, and five appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

From 1990-92, Horton coached Appalachian State's receivers and tight ends before taking over as the Mountaineers' running backs coach in 1993. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

A graduate of the University of Arkansas, Horton earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1990. While at Arkansas, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter as a split end and punt returner for the Razorbacks under head coach Ken Hatfield. He caught 49 passes for 942 yards and one touchdown in his career, including hauling in 23 catches for 453 yards as a senior in 1989. Horton also returned 78 punts for 657 yards in his collegiate career.

Horton's four years at Arkansas proved to be among the most successful in school history as the Razorbacks compiled a 38-11 record, won back-to-back Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989 and appeared in four straight bowl games. In fact, Horton's graduating class remains tied for the school record for the most wins in a four-year period.

A two-time academic all-conference selection, Horton was a second-team all-conference selection in 1989 and served as the Razorbacks' team captain that season. In high school, Horton was a two-time all-state running back at Conway (Ark.) High School.

Horton and his wife Lauren have one daughter, Caroline, and one son, Jackson. Horton is the son of former Arkansas player, Razorback assistant coach, UCA head coach and current Razorback Foundation Executive Director Harold Horton.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

GARRICK MCGEE

QUARTERBACKS

Former Oklahoma quarterback and Jacksonville Jaguars assistant Garrick McGee is in his second season as the quarterbacks coach.

Under McGee's guidance, UA quarterback Ryan Mallett led the SEC in passing and total offense in 2009 along with setting or matching a 16 different school records. In addition, UA quarterbacks have combined to pass for a school record 3,640 yards in 2009.

In his first year, Arkansas established a then-school record with 3,115 passing yards and ranked second in the SEC in passing offense (258.5). UA quarterbacks combined for four 300-yard passing games, which were the most by any team in the SEC. Arkansas had entered the 2008 season with only nine 300-yard passing games in school history.

McGee spent the previous four seasons (2004-07) at Northwestern University where he was the receivers and punt return coach his first two seasons, and the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator in 2006 and '07.

Directing the Wildcat's spread offense, McGee's 2007 unit led the Big Ten and was No. 11 in the nation in passing with 307.9 yards per game, and led the Big Ten and was No. 31 in the country in total offense with (427.7).

In 2005, his Northwestern receiving corps had three wideouts ranked in the top 10 on the Big Ten season receptions list for the first time in school history.

They became just the second team in Big Ten history to average more than 500 yards per game with 500.3 per contest, which ranked fourth nationally.

The Wildcats led the Big Ten with 306.8 yards passing per game, which also ranked seventh in the nation.

His first season at Northwestern (2004), Wildcat receivers averaged 237.3 yards per game, NU's best since 2001. He coached two All-Big Ten receivers in Mark Philmore and Shaun Herbert.

McGee was the receivers and kickoff return coach for head coach John Robinson at Nevada-Las Vegas in 2003.

In 2002, he was the receivers coach at Toledo, helping the Rockets earn a spot in the Motor City Bowl with a Mid-America Conference West Division title.

Toledo's receivers combined for 309 receptions for 3,611 yards and 25 touchdowns with Carl Ford becoming the first 1,000-yard receiver in school history with 79 catches for 1,042 yards and a school record-tying nine scores.

Toledo was fifth in the nation in total offense with 472 yards per game, setting school records for total offense (6,752 yards) and passing yards (3,611).

The Tulsa, Okla., native began his coaching career at Langston (Okla.) University where from 1996-98 he coached defensive backs before moving to quarterbacks, receivers and special teams. He also worked as the equipment manager and assisted with track and field.

He was the receivers and kickoff return coach at Northern Iowa in 1999, helping UNI set school records for total offense (5,253 yards) and passing yards (3,722).

In 2001 and 2002, he was an offensive assistant and quality control coach with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He worked as an assistant to the quarterbacks coach under Bobby Petrino, helping quarterbacks and receivers with fundamentals, and assisting in all phases of special teams.

Prior to the 2005 season, McGee was one of 10 coaches selected to participate in the NCAA Expert Coaching Academy. The program is designed to teach and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in NCAA head coach positions at the I-A level.

McGee prepped at Booker T. Washington High in Tulsa for his father, the late Larry McGee. He played at Arizona State in 1991 and '92 under Petrino, went to Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1993 and transferred to Oklahoma.

He played two years for the Sooners and ended his career fourth on OU's career passing list with 2,449 yards. He was named the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year by the league's coaches in 1994.

McGee graduated from Booker T. Washington in 1991, earned an associates degree from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1993 and his bachelor's from OU in 1996. He and his wife, Tiffany, were married in the summer of 2009.

LEADERSHIP CLASSES

After having a losing season in 2008, the Arkansas coaching staff realized a handful of players needed to be taught the proper way to lead a football team. That's when they came up with the idea for Wednesday morning leadership seminars. Paul Petrino volunteered to run the hour-long sessions over the summer, and more than a dozen players and assistant coaches followed along. They read a motivational book, studied chapters and talked about the qualities needed to be a leader. The Razorbacks were looking for a way to build team chemistry, get more out of the veteran players and avoid internal problems and the seminars helped. UA preseason first-team All-SEC running back Michael Smith was among the players who were a part of the seminars and stated he believed they brought the players together and created a support system for everyone else on the team.

OFF THE FIELD PROFILES (STARTERS ONLY)

Jake Bequette

•Fourth member of the Bequette family to play football at Arkansas. Father (Jay) played from 1980-82, his uncle (Chris) from 1984-87 and his grandfather George from 1954-56.

Freddy Burton

•A recreation major at the University of Arkansas, Burton hopes to one day take the lessons he has learned between the lines and as a community volunteer and apply it in helping inner-city youth.

Greg Childs

•Favorite NFL player is Larry Fitzgerald.

Rudell Crim

•Best friend on the team is running back Michael Smith. The two met in elementary school and their families became friends when the two were on the same high school team. Is Michael Smith's roommate (first roommate Smith allowed in college). As a child, he helped Smith with his paper route.
•Was originally recruited out of high school by Coach Petrino when he was at Louisville.

Wendel Davis

•Changed his jersey number to No. 10 in the Spring of 2009 because he wanted a fresh start.
•During 2008 winter conditioning, Davis blew out a knee, tearing his anterior cruciate ligament.

Elton Ford

•Ford suffered a potentially career-threatening injury during a collision in the 2008 Ole Miss game (Oct. 25). He broke three vertebrae in his neck and Ford spent the next 3 1/2 months wearing a neck brace to restrict his movement. He couldn't see the ground when he walked. He couldn't drive. He could barely sleep. He was cleared for non-contact drills in the spring of 2009. After nearly 10 months, the first day of full contact drills for the Razorbacks was Aug. 10, 2009.

Wade Grayson

•Grandfather used to have the biggest hog farm in Arkansas and because of that people called Wade's dad Hogman and called Wade Pork Chop while he was growing up.

Matt Harris

•Father (Cliff) is a former star for the Dallas Cowboys who played for Ouachita Baptist before going on to appear in five Super Bowls and six Pro Bowls for the Cowboys.
•Nephew of former Razorback defensive back Tommy Harris.

Ryan Mallett

•Grew up a Razorback fan and attended football camps on the Arkansas campus. As a kid he wanted to play football, basketball and baseball for the Razorbacks.
•He was born in Batesville and his family moved to Lincoln (20 miles from Fayetteville) where the family lived until he was in fifth grade when the family moved again to Texarkana.
•Helped park cars at Razorback games growing up to be able to attend Arkansas games.
•Uncle (David Burnette) played at Arkansas before transferring to UCA where he played for Coach Harold Horton who is the President and Executive Director of the Razorback Foundation and the father of UA assistant coach Tim Horton.
•Claims to be able to throw the football farther than 80 yards and has punted the ball over 60 yards.

SPECIAL TEAM FEATURE WITH ETHAN HAMILTON

- Handled some of the punting duties during 2009 spring practice for the Razorbacks and has punted since beginning to play football.
- Father (Jim) is now an assistant coach at Texarkana (Texas) Middle School. Jim punted at Searcy High School and played baseball at Central Arkansas.
- Was a standout pitcher growing up.
- At a camp at the University of Michigan, he took turns throwing to wide receivers who ran different routes in front of former coach Lloyd Carr. At the end of practice one receiver who started with brand new gloves held up his hands and the gloves were shredded due to how hard Mallett was throwing the ball.
- Transferred to Arkansas after one year at Michigan, which is an 18 hour drive from his hometown. His quarterback coach at Michigan was Scot Loeffler who is currently the quarterback coach at Florida.
- Favorite NFL quarterback to watch film of is Tom Brady.
- Favorite professional athlete is Lebron James. Mallett has been following Lebron since he was in high school and he admires his playing ability and business sense.
- By the time he was 13, Mallett was around 6-foot-3, wore size-13 shoes and stood four inches taller than his father, who's only 5-foot-11.

Mitch Petrus

•Took up boxing because Arkansas strength and conditioning coaches thought it would be good for the offensive lineman to help him get quicker with his hands.

Malcolm Sheppard

- Criminal justice major who hopes to follow his father's (Ricky) footsteps into law enforcement eventually.
- Enjoys swimming to stay in shape.
- Suffered an accident as a child while playing with his brother to his left eye that still causes blurry vision. Sheppard and his brother took fishing line and chopsticks and made a bow and arrow. An errant arrow caught Sheppard in the left eye, requiring emergency surgery to save it. Sheppard says doctors discussed removing the eye, but his mother, Evelyn Sheppard, insisted they do everything to save it. He underwent two surgeries and will require additional surgeries one day to restore his vision to 20/20. Sheppard wears a plastic helmet shield to protect his eyes, but he does not consider his condition a disability.
- Was selected one of six captains for the 2009 Razorback football team. It is believed he is the first two-time captain at Arkansas since Frank Broyles began coaching in 1958.
- Favorite athlete is Dwight Freeney.

D.J. Williams

- Is majoring in communications and after football plans for a career in public relations or broadcast journalism.
- Had the word "Faith" tattooed on his left shoulder in the summer of 2008 because it is what has carried him and his family.
- Mother (Vicky Williams) has attended nearly all of his Arkansas games. Lists home town as Little Rock, Ark. When he was about to enter fifth grade, his mother, older sister (Vanessa) and D.J. left Carrollton, Texas. Vicky did not have time to pack the car, but grabbed her two youngest children to escape her abusive husband. D.J. was given a map and he pointed to Little Rock as the place the three would move to.
- Mother (Vicky) volunteers at the Women & Children First Center for Family Violence in Little Rock, Ark.
- Has not spoken to his father since the family left prior to his fifth grade year.
- Enjoys playing piano after his sister gave him a keyboard.
- Played the drums in the high school band.
- Involved in FCA.

A season opening kickoff return for a touchdown that triggered a 21-point first quarter helped the Razorbacks to a 48-10 rout of Missouri State to begin the year before a sellout crowd at War Memorial Stadium.

The Razorbacks, 1-0, passed for a school record 447 yards behind the efficient work of sophomore Ryan Mallett and freshman Tyler Wilson. Both quarterbacks had sustained touchdown drives for the Razorbacks as Arkansas combined to hit 30-of-41 attempts with a lone interception.

The Razorbacks took control of the game at the kickoff as Dennis Johnson took Matt Hottelman's opening kick off 91 yards for the first touchdown of the 2009 season. The PAT from Alex Tejada gave Arkansas a 7-0 lead 18 seconds into the game and led the way for the first 21-point quarter of offense in the Petrino Era at Arkansas.

Nearby Rogers, Ark., product Cody Kirby managed a first down after the Razorback kickoff, but under pressure from Freddy Burton hurried his pass and was picked by Wendel Davis. Mallett opened his Razorback career with a completion, and guided Arkansas to a short six-play, 46-yard drive capped by a 15-yard untouched draw from Michael Smith for the touchdown.

Missouri State managed to get on the board when Hottelman connected on a career-long 53-yard attempt with 3:16 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks responded before the end of the quarter with a one-yard touchdown run by Broderick Green, set up by a pair of receptions from Mallett to Jarius Wright.

Petrino went to his backup quarterback, Tyler Wilson, for the next series, and the 6-3 freshman led Arkansas to its fourth touchdown of the night. Wilson's drive saw two fourth down conversions, including the two-yard TD pass to Van Stumon.

Trailing 28-3, Missouri State put together its first touchdown drive of the night, aided by a fourth-down pass interference penalty in the Razorback end zone. After the flag, Jonathan Davis punched the two-yard run in for a 28-10 deficit.

Mallett returned to the game, and took his consecutive pass completions to nine before his first miss. Moving the Hogs inside the Bears' four yard line, Tejada came on with 14 seconds left in the half to pick up his first field goal of the season with a 20-yarder to send the teams to halftime at, 31-10.

ARKANSAS 41

NO. 23 (AP) NO. 20 (USA TODAY) GEORGIA 52

On a night where offense reigned supreme, it was the visitors who came away with the top numbers as the Georgia Bulldogs outlasted the Arkansas Razorbacks in a 52-41 scoring marathon.

Georgia racked up 530 yards of offense led by a 375-yard passing night by quarterback Joe Cox.

Arkansas saw its sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett tie and break school records but could not stop the Bulldogs in the fourth quarter.

The two teams combined for more than 1,000 yards of offense.

It was a record-setting night for Mallett who broke the school record with five touchdown passes in a single game as he broke the single-game passing mark with more than 400 yards in the air.

The sophomore from Texarkana hit 21-of-39 attempts without a single interception to rack up 408 yards and five touchdowns, breaking the mark of Clint Stoerner who had 387 against LSU on Nov. 28, 1997. It was his second consecutive 300-yard passing game as a Razorback.

The Razorbacks had two receivers over 100 yards as Greg Childs had five catches for 140 yards and two touchdowns.

Arkansas roared out of the gates, posting a pair of one-play scoring drives on the way to a 21-10 lead after the first quarter. Mallett hit three touchdown strikes to post the lead, opening with an 18-yard strike to Joe Adams.

Georgia's Cox evened the score at 7-7 with a 21-yard TD pass of his own to Aron White.

Mallett had the first of his one-play drives, hitting Jarius Wright in stride for a 48-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead. The Bulldogs picked up a 35-yard field goal from Walsh to make it 14-10.

Mallett closed the quarter with a 30-yard touchdown to Childs for the 21-10 spread.

Georgia went on a 17-0 run in the second quarter starting with an 80-yard touchdown sprint by Richard Samuel. The Dogs backed it up with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Green from Cox to take their first lead of the game, 24-21. Walsh closed out the half with a 37-yard field goal to send the Dogs to halftime leading 27-21.

Mallett engineered an eight play, 66-yard drive capped with a 40-yard TD to Childs to put Arkansas back ahead, 28-27, at the start of the third quarter. Cox countered with a three-play, 65-yard drive to regain the lead, 34-28. The Bulldogs tried to get the two-point conversion for spacing, but a penalty forced UGA to opt for the PAT.

The Razorbacks returned fire with a five-play, 60-yard drive finished with a fourth-down touchdown pass to D.J. Williams for two yards. Alex Tejada's kick made it 35-34 with 5:15 left in the third.

The Bulldogs took the lead for good on a 44-yard touchdown strike to Orson Charles. For the second time, Georgia went for two and again had a penalty. This time, Coach Mark Richt went for the long, seven-yard two point conversion which Cox got by lofting to the far corner of the end zone for Green.

Now leading 42-35, Georgia held Arkansas inside its own 20 and forced a Tejada field goal of 23 yards to end the third quarter at 42-38.

Cox took command of the final quarter, managing not only to make scores but take time off the clock. His 73-yard drive ending with another Green touchdown, this time 28 yards, put the Bulldogs two scores away from Arkansas, 49-38, with 10 minutes left in the game.

Arkansas managed a lone field goal the rest of the way as Tejada hit another 23-yarder with 7:21 left in the game. Georgia tacked on a final 31-yard field goal with 2:10 to play.

The attendance of 74,210 was the fifth-largest in Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium history. It was the most since Oct. 25, 2008, when 74,168 watched Arkansas play Ole Miss.

ARKANSAS 7

NO. 3 (AP)
NO. 3 (USA TODAY) ALABAMA 35

On a big play day, the third-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide scored three touchdowns on plays of over 50 yards to defeat the Arkansas Razorbacks, 35-7, at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Senior running back Michael Smith had 12 carries for 61 yards and quarterback Ryan Mallett hit 12-of-33 for 160 yards, scoring the Razorbacks' only touchdown on an 18-yard pass to Greg Childs.

After a rough first half, Mallett guided Arkansas on a five-play, 55-yard touchdown drive. Three straight completions by the 6-7 sophomore highlighted by a 23-yard pass to D.J. Williams before the 18-yard fade route to the deep left corner for the score. Alex Tejada's PAT made it 14-7.

Alabama quarterback Greg McElroy put the margin back to 14 on the first play of the ensuing Alabama possession as he found Marquis Maze on a post route for an 80-yard touchdown with 10:21 left in the third and a 21-7 lead.

Mallett moved Arkansas down field, but on fourth down Dylan Breeding's rugby-style punt attempt was blocked by Lorenzo Washington. McElroy connected with Mark Ingram for a 14-yard touchdown to take advantage of the miscue and a 28-7 lead with 5:33 in the third.

The Razorbacks looked like they had a big break as Breeding's punt was downed inside the one yard line. Alabama went on a game clinching 99-yard drive that soaked up almost six and a half minutes of clock before Ingram's two yard dash made it 35-7 with 13:12 left in the game.

After giving up over 50 points to Georgia in its last game, the Razorback defense opened the game by holding the powerful Alabama offense scoreless in the first quarter.

Defense held sway almost the entire opening quarter as a combined two offensive first downs, and two more by penalty, was the highlight early. The teams swapped field position advantages early until Alabama pinned Arkansas for consecutive possessions inside the Razorbacks' 20.

Petrino went with a fake punt with a direct snap to Ronnie Wingo Jr. on fourth and five at the Hogs' 25-yard line to spark the first sustained drive for either team. Mallett connected with Joe Adams for a 19-yard first down play to put the Razorbacks at the Bama 47 to close the first quarter. He backed it up with another first down pass to Wright to push the Hogs to the 33, but Javier Arenas' eight-yard sack of Mallett ended the drive.

The Tide broke the scoreless start with a six play, 86-yard drive capped by a 52-yard touchdown run by Trent Richardson. The Alabama back evaded a potential tackle for loss for the scoring run with 9:30 left in the quarter for a 7-0 lead.

After a first down seemed to have Arkansas moving, Arenas picked up his second sack, a 13-yard loss for the Razorbacks. Arenas returned the ensuing Hogs' punt to the 50. Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban called for a Wildcat reverse, ending with a McElroy 50-yard touchdown pass to Julio Jones and a quick 14-0 Alabama lead.

Arkansas' defense settled down after the 14-point outburst sending the teams to halftime with the same 14-0 spread.

The Tide racked up 217 first half yards, but 102 of Alabama's yardage came on the two touchdown plays. Mallett hit his first two passes, and had a series of three straight in Arkansas' one sustained drive, but went only 7-of-21 in the first half for 74 yards. McElroy was 8-of-15 for 103 yards and a TD in the first half. The Razorbacks had only 101 yards at halftime.

For the game, McElroy finished with a career high 17-of-24 for 291 yards and three touchdowns.

While Breeding suffered one block, the Razorback punter also had a career day. Breeding punted nine times for 358 yards and an average of 39.8, all career highs. His 52-yard punt was a career long and was his third 50-yard punt of the season. Breeding also put three punts inside the 20-yard line including one inside the one.

TEXAS A&M 19

A 30-point first-half offensive explosion left Texas A&M reeling and the Razorback faithful Calling the Hogs at the inaugural Southwest Classic at Dallas Cowboys Stadium as Arkansas roared to the 47-19 win.

Arkansas took the first game of the 10-year series, handing the Aggies their first loss of 2009.

The Razorbacks struggled in the first quarter, giving up a 10-0 lead before the combination of stifling defense and high-octane offense led by sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett blew the game wide open.

A 30-point scoring spree ended all doubt as Mallett came within one of tying his own school record for touchdown passes.

The Razorbacks racked up a series-record 47 points, surpassing the 45 scored on Halloween night back in 1970. The 28-point spread tied the all-time best from the 28-0 shutout in 1982.

After a tough start, Mallett finished 17-of-27 for 271 yards and four touchdowns.

The Razorbacks showed more balance on offense than earlier games with a highly efficient 58 plays for 434 total yards, picking up 163 on the ground. The Aggies had 93 total plays, but managed only 458 yards and two touchdowns.

Joe Adams had a breakout night for the Razorbacks, picking up 110 yards on three catches to lead both teams. Ronnie Wingo Jr. led Arkansas with 86 yards rushing on only four plays.

The restart of the rivalry between the former Southwest Conference members looked like a blow out from the start.

The Aggies used big plays to break out to a 10-0 lead while the Razorbacks struggled to get on balance. A 31-yard run by Cyrus Gray on the opening play for TAMU, followed by a 17-yard completion put the Aggies in the Razorback red zone. The Arkansas defense stiffened, and the Aggies settled for a 32-yard field goal.

A&M stymied the Razorback offense early, and used a 60-yard strike to Brandon Jackson from quarterback Jerrod Johnson to lead 10-0.

That, however, was the end of the Aggies.

Arkansas had no completions and a pair of sacks to show for its first two possessions, but Mallett found his stride in the next drive, hitting Smith for a 67-yard gain deep into Aggie territory.

Three plays later, Mallett tossed to Broderick Green out of the backfield for an eight-yard touchdown pass.

The Razorbacks forced a sloppy, five-yard rugby style punt from the Aggies to close the first quarter, and took advantage with a seven-play, 38-yard drive capped by Mallett, finding a wide open DeAnthony Curtis in the left corner of the endzone.

The early lead for the Razorbacks seemed in doubt when Dennis Johnson fumbled a punt that was covered by A&M at the Arkansas 12. But two plays later, Tenarius Wright forced a fumble by Johnson, and Jerry Franklin scooped up the loose ball and rambled 85 yards for the touchdown.

The Aggies never recovered. The Razorback defense held TAMU to back-to-back three-and-out possessions.

Arkansas' offense hit the gas. A 38-yard Alex Tejada field goal made it 24-10 before Mallett put on a passing show.

A four-play, 73-yard drive all off the arm of Mallett, ended with a 31-yard pass to Jarius Wright. Tejada's PAT was off line, but it sent the Hogs to halftime up 30-10.

A 47-yard field goal by Bullock snapped the Arkansas scoring spree, but Michael Smith stepped in for his near-solo drive. The senior had five plays for 62 yards of the 70-yard drive, including the final 29 on a touchdown reception from Mallett.

The Aggies managed their only other touchdown of the night on the opening play of the fourth quarter with a three-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Tannehill. The two-point conversion attempt failed, leaving the score 37-19.

Arkansas tacked on another Tejada field goal, this one 18 yards, then a 62-yard scamper by Wingo with 5:37 left to play closed out the night at 47-19.

Another opening offensive barrage by the Arkansas Razorbacks left 17th-ranked Auburn stunned and with the Tigers' first loss of the season.

The combination of almost 300 yards from sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett and a 100-yard day from senior tailback Michael Smith drove Arkansas to its fourth 40-point day and a 44-23 victory.

The Razorbacks were perfect in the red zone with seven scores when reaching inside the Auburn 20-yard line.

Arkansas scored at will in the first half, holding the Tigers to a mere three points. Auburn momentarily recovered, but Arkansas closed the door quickly with defense in the fourth quarter.

Mallett finished the game with 24-of-37 for 274 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Smith had his first 100-yard day of the year with 18 carries for 145 before leaving the game early.

The Razorbacks dominated every part of the statistics with five yards short of 500 total yards on 82 plays. Arkansas had an almost 17-minute advantage in time of possession and foiled almost every Tiger offensive possession.

Auburn won the coin toss and elected to receive. The Tigers quickly discovered it would be the only major decision they would take on the day as a three-and-out set the stage for the Razorbacks.

Arkansas took the game to the Tigers from the kickoff, missing only the opening PAT in an offensive tour de force. A 12-play drive of 73 yards capped by the first of two Broderick Green touchdown runs gave Arkansas a 6-0 lead.

The Razorback defense completely shut down the high-powered Tiger offense, limiting Auburn to only 28 yards on the first 14 plays. Auburn had three-and-out on three of its first four possessions before sputtering down field in the early second quarter.

Arkansas picked up a touchdown run from Smith of 25 yards to push the lead to 13-0 at the start of the second quarter. A fumble recovered in the air from the Tigers put Arkansas on the Auburn 34-yard line, and two plays later Mallett found Greg Childs for 16 yards.

Shifting to a run, Auburn advanced to the 25, but the Hog defense forced a field goal, the only first-half points by the Tigers.

While the 37-yarder from Wes Byrum snapped the 20-point opening scoring spree, Mallett took advantage of an Auburn turnover for a two-play drive to make it 27-3 at intermission.

Auburn opened the second half with a drive deep into Razorback territory that looked to give life to the Tigers. But disaster struck at the five-yard line as Ben Tate dropped the handoff from Chris Todd, and Jake Bequette covered for the Razorbacks.

Mallett and Smith combined to march the Hogs 95 yards from the fumble recovery, capped by a demonstrative four-yard touchdown run by Mallett.

The drive looked like it would end the game and lead Arkansas to the largest margin of victory in the history of the series, surpassing a 42-17 win in 2001.

The Tiger offense revived behind a pair of 60-yard plays. Tate avenged his fumble with a one-yard plunge to cap a 67-yard drive, then went 60 yards on the first play of the next Tiger possession. Auburn went for two and failed, leaving the score 34-16.

Auburn stopped the Razorbacks next possession, and after a 60-yard reverse play from Terrell Zachery set up a three-yard TD run by Onterio McCalebb, the scored was trimmed to 34-23.

The 20 unanswered points by Auburn matched Arkansas' early surge, but on the ensuing kickoff the Razorback kick off returner rambled for a 70-yard return.

Green picked up his second touchdown with a three-yard run to cap the quick 30-yard drive which seemed to take out the Auburn power.

The Razorbacks took advantage of turnovers as another Auburn turnover late allowed Alex Tejada to kick a 23-yard field goal.

Caleb Sturgis' 27-yard field goal proved the game winner as Florida escaped with a 23-20 win over the Arkansas Razorbacks in Southeastern Conference action.

After almost three quarters of defense, the final 15 minutes became an offensive shootout with the last team holding the ball left with the chance to win it all.

The No. 1-ranked Florida Gators got that chance when the Arkansas Razorbacks missed a 38-yard field goal attempt with 3:08 left in the game. Taking over at his own 21-yard line, Gator Heisman Trophy quarterback Tim Tebow marched the length of the field for the winning field goal.

Forcing four turnovers and racking up a season-high six sacks, the Razorback defense severely limited the SEC's top offensive unit.

Dennis Johnson had his first 100-yard game, finishing with 14 carries for 107 yards. Greg Childs had four catches for 137 yards as the Hogs' top receiver.

Arkansas' Ryan Mallett closed the day with 12-of-27 for 224 yards and a touchdown.

Defense dominated the first three quarters, leaving the two teams tied 13-13. The Gators tied the game on a record-setting touchdown pass by Tebow. Tebow finished with 255 yards in the air and 69 on the ground, accounting for 324 of Florida's 391 total yards.

Mallett responded with a 75-yard touchdown strike to Greg Childs at the 9:40 mark of the fourth quarter. Mallett's throw on the run out of the pocket found Childs streaking down the field. Childs weaved through the Gator secondary, but was hit at the goal line. The ball rolled forward into the end zone, and was covered by Childs. After a review, the touchdown stood and Tejada's PAT put Arkansas back ahead, 20-13.

A pair of penalties aided a five-play, 67-yard drive for the Gators to tie the game on a 10-yard run by Jeffrey Demps at 20:20.

The Razorbacks responded by driving back downfield to the Gator 21, but Tejada pushed the 38-yard attempt wide left with 3:08 to play.

Tebow kept Florida close, accounting for most of the Gators yardage. A pair of passes and one run from the senior quarterback moved Florida inside the Hog 20. DeQuinta Jones' second sack of Tebow ended the touchdown threat, setting the stage for a career-long 51-yard field goal for Caleb Sturgis.

The Razorbacks stopped the Gator drive with the fifth sack of the game courtesy of Jerry Franklin. Heading into the game, the most sacks given up by Florida was only three and eventually yielded six to the Razorbacks.

While Arkansas could not move the ball, the defense produced another turnover when Rainey lost the ball to Tramain Thomas' foot, who then covered the ball at the UF 29-yard line. Arkansas had a chance to score, but a 40-yarder by Tejada was wide left.

Tebow burned Arkansas on the next play, connecting with Deonte Thompson for a 77-yard touchdown strike. The career-long touchdown put Florida ahead for the first time, 13-10, with 2:59 left in the third.

NO. 25 (USA TODAY) OLE MISS 30

The combination of a slow start by the Razorbacks and a career-day from Ole Miss running back Dexter McCluster and quarterback Jevan Snead resulted in a 30-17 defeat for the University of Arkansas at the hands of the Rebels.

McCluster had a 100-yard rushing day by halftime, and added over 100 yards in receiving. McCluster finished with 260 total yards, 123 rushing and 137 receiving.

The Rebel quarterback Snead went over 300 yards for the first time in his career as Ole Miss racked up over 500 yards on the Razorbacks.

The Razorbacks were led by Greg Childs with 83 yards on receptions and Michael Smith with 35 yards rushing. Ryan Mallett went 12-of-34 for 254 yards in the air.

Arkansas made a comeback from an early 17-point deficit, trimming the Ole Miss lead to seven twice.

But a pair of time-consuming drives by Ole Miss in the late second half robbed the Razorbacks of the time needed to rally.

Trailing by 14 in the third, Mallett went deep for a 58-yard touchdown strike. Mallett held for time in the pocket, and took a hit as he released the almost 50-yard pass. Childs went up for the catch at the Ole Miss four, batting the ball toward Carlton Salters. Salters plucked the free ball out of the air and carried it the last three yards into the end zone for the TD.

The score cut the margin to seven again, 24-17, and the Rebels responded with their first of two sustained drive since the opening quarter. The 12-play drive for 62 yards took 5:26 off the clock, resulting in a 39-yard field goal by Shene just as the fourth-quarter began to lift the Rebels to a 27-17 margin.

Arkansas was unable to move the ball on its next possession, and the Rebels marched 76 yards on a 14-play drive. More important for the home team, the drive consumed almost seven minutes of clock before a 19-yard field goal by Shene made it a two-score margin at 30-17.

Arkansas opened the second half with a three and out, but Snead gave up his second interception of the game to Andru Stewart. The Razorbacks' DB returned the pass all the way back to the Ole Miss 39-yard line, setting up a short drive for Arkansas' second score. Alex Tejada's season-long 44-yard field goal cut the margin to 17-10.

Arkansas got its first touchdown on a seven-play, 80-yard drive that featured the first two long completions by Mallett. Mallett hit Reggie Fish for 32 yards to get the drive moving. The big sophomore quarterback found Childs for another 31 yarder, hitting his receiver in full-stride and putting the Razorbacks at the Ole Miss 3-yard line.

Knile Davis took it in for his first career touchdown to send the teams to halftime, 17-7.

In the drive, Mallett was 3-of-5 for 75 of Arkansas' 80 yards. In the first Arkansas possessions, Mallett was only 3-of-10 for 111 yards.

The start of the game was all Ole Miss as the Rebels rolled off 17 straight points. The Rebels took the opening kickoff 73 yards for a score to begin the contest. The 10-play drive did not have a third down until the Rebels went twice up the middle on first and goal at the one.

After Arkansas ended the Rebels' next possession with a crushing sack of Snead by Jerico Nelson, the Rebels went to the ground attack. McCluster almost broke for a touchdown on the first play, but Matt Harris' open field tackle saved the score. Ole Miss stayed on the ground the next six plays, mostly with McCluster, before Snead attempted his first pass of the drive, connecting for 26 yards to Shay Hodge for a 14-0 lead.

Meanwhile, the Razorbacks managed only two first quarter first downs as the Arkansas offense struggled on its first possessions. Arkansas pushed the ball into Ole Miss territory at the 35 to start the second quarter, but was unable to convert on fourth down.

The Hogs pushed into Rebel territory again, but Ole Miss held and returned to the end zone at the close of the second quarter. On a Wild Rebel play, the toss back to Snead led to a 39-yard pass to Marquis Summers at the Arkansas five. The Razorback defense held Ole Miss and the Rebels settled for a 22-yard field goal by Shene.

For the first half, Arkansas had only 186 yards on 32 plays while the Rebels went for 298 yards on 42 plays. McCluster ran 108 yards by half on 12 carries to insure his first career 100-yard game.

Injuries hurt the Razorback secondary as Ramon Broadway left midway through the first half and Rudell Crim was assisted off the field just before halftime.

ARKANSAS 63 EASTERN MICH. 27

On Homecoming evening in Fayetteville, it was Little Rock night for the Arkansas Razorbacks as central Arkansas natives Joe Adams and Broderick Green combined for four touchdowns as the Razorbacks dominated Eastern Michigan, 63-27.

Adams returned to the lineup for the first time since his mild stroke earlier this year, and the sophomore made three catches for 109 yards and two touchdowns.

Adams wasn't cleared to return to play until Wednesday of game week.

Transfer sophomore Green turned in 131 yards in his first career start. Green touched the ball only eight times, but took two into the end zone.

Another Little Rock native, Seth Armbrust, added a late touchdown as he blocked an Eagle punt, then picked up the loose ball to score.

Arkansas was sharp from the opening play as the Razorbacks hit 11-straight passes and took control with a 21-0 first quarter lead.

Sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett had an exceptional game, with 14-of-16 completions for 248 yards and three touchdowns. The redshirt sophomore also ran for 42 yards, all off scrambles.

For the night, Arkansas racked up over 500 yards while putting up the most points for a Bobby Petrino team at Arkansas.

The Razorbacks had 584 total yards, 292 on the ground and 292 in the air.

Following a disappointing game the week before, Petrino went with several changes in the starting lineup. The Razorbacks were also playing without senior tailback Michael Smith.

The Razorback defense saw the most changes in starters, and responded with a complete shutout of Eastern Michigan for the first half. The Eagles could not manage a single first down, and put together only 39 yards on 20 plays.

Burton's 50-yard interception return for a touchdown off EMU's second drive allowed the Arkansas defense to single-handedly defeat the Eagles, at least for the opening 30 minutes.

The Razorback offense, however, made it a rout.

The first half featured five touchdowns, 11 consecutive pass completions to open the game and a pair of one-play touchdown drives.

Arkansas took the opening kickoff and drive 73 yards on eight plays with freshman Knile Davis closing the drive with a 36-yard run. A shanked punt by EMU put Arkansas in a short-field position, and after three plays the Razorbacks had a 14-0 lead.

Burton's interception closed the first quarter with a 21-0 Razorback lead, but shortly after the start of the second Adams scored his first TD with a 10-yard reception from Mallett.

Following another three-and-out performance by the EMU offense, the Eagles got what appeared to be their first break of the game as a Zach Johnson punt rolled down to the Razorback one-yard line.

Mallett handed off to Green, who broke through the line of scrimmage then hit another gear racing through the Eagles' secondary. Green evaded pursuit near the Eagles' 40, then broke for the goal line and a record-setting 99-yard score.

It was only the second 90-yard or longer touchdown run in Razorback history, and exceeded the previous record of 90 yards set by Billy Moore against Tulsa back in 1962.

Arkansas wouldn't wait long for its next lightning strike as Mallett found a wide open Adams for a 78-yard touchdown reception. The back-to-back one-play touchdown drives made it 42-0 as the teams went to halftime.

The Razorback scoring spree reached 49 straight points after the Eagles' first drive of the second half. Johnson set to punt, but three Razorbacks broke the Eagle protection, with Seth Armbrust making the block. The ball caromed to the EMU 10, then bounced among Razorbacks before Armbrust scooped it up at the three and took it in for the score.

Eastern Michigan got both its first first down and its first score early in the third quarter. Kyle McMahon completed a pass for the initial first down at the 11:25 mark of the third, and marched the Eagles down the field for the score. McMahon hit Ben Thayer for the score. The PAT was blocked, but started a mild rally by the Eagles.

McMahon hit Kinsman Thomas for a 77-yard touchdown on EMU's next possession. The Razorbacks responded by adding a three-play, 60-yard drive. A 55-yard near-touchdown strike from Mallett to Cobi Hamilton set the stage for Davis' five-yard TD run.

Another long pass, this time a 35-yarder, allowed EMU another touchdown, which Arkansas countered with a five-play, 62-yard drive to take the score to 63-20.

Eastern Michigan's Dwayne Priest was the Eagles' workhorse, and finally scored on his 21st carry of the contest. The late 10-yard touchdown run closed out the scoring with 2:14 left.

GAME 9

SOUTH CAROLINA 16

Tight end D.J. Williams caught seven passes for 137 yards and Broderick Green scored two touchdowns as the University of Arkansas handed South Carolina a 33-16 defeat in Southeastern Conference play.

Sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett had a near-perfect day, hitting 23-of-27 passes with no interceptions and 329 yards.

His most consistent target was Williams, who pulled a game best for Arkansas 69-yarder.

After having trouble with third down conversions in SEC games, the Razorbacks marched several long drives on USC.

The game was a back-and-forth battle in the opening half, with the two teams going to intermission tied at 10-10. After a momentary lapse on the opening play of the second half, the Razorback defense shut out the Gamecocks the rest of the game.

Meanwhile Arkansas put together 23 unanswered points following the one-play scoring drive of USC at the beginning of the third quarter.

Stephen Garcia took the momentum for the Gamecocks on the first play of the second half, play faking the dive out of the shotgun then dropping the ball deep to Alshon Jeffery at the Razorback 30. Jeffery evaded the Razorback secondary's pursuit for the touchdown. The snap on the ensuing PAT was mishandled, and the Gamecocks settled for a six-point, 16-10, lead.

Arkansas responded quickly, moving across midfield on an 18-yard completion to London Crawford followed by a clutch play fake from Mallett on third and short. Selling the handoff up the middle, Mallett calmly pulled the ball from behind his back to find Williams wide open to the Carolina nine. Michael Smith took it down to the two on the next play, setting up a sneak for Mallett on third down from the one. Alex Tejada's PAT was good for the 17-16 lead.

Garcia marched the Gamecocks back down the field, but faltered on his attempt to find Jeffery in the end zone. Jerrell Norton won the jump ball for the interception in the corner of the end zone to stop the drive.

Mallett put together a seven-play drive that featured a pair of Williams' receptions, including one that put the ball on the Gamecock one. Green punched it in for the 24-16 lead.

A poor snap to Garcia sent the Carolina quarterback scurrying 20 yards down field in pursuit of the loose ball. He reached it at the two, but could not keep it away from the Razorback pressure, knocking it into the end zone where Brian Maddox covered it for a safety, 26-16. It was the first safety for Arkansas since the 2007 Kentucky game.

The Arkansas defense sent Carolina reeling backward, then used a 38-yard punt return from Norton to set up a short-field drive to score with just under five minutes left in the game. Another clutch Williams catch set the Hogs up with a first down deep in Carolina territory. Green took over with a rush to the left for three yards, then to the right for five before going straight up the gut three yards for the touchdown and a 33-16 lead.

Garcia marched USC down the field after the ensuing kickoff, but the clock became Arkansas' greatest ally as the Gamecocks reached the Razorback four-yard line on fourth down with 1:49 left. His pass was incomplete and the Hogs ran out the clock.

Arkansas' first drive ended after a 14-yard first-down run by Green. The punt set the Gamecocks on their own 29-yard-line. Garcia worked the longest drive of the first half, taking almost six minutes off the clock and converting three third downs and a fourth down to get within the Razorback 10.

A series of miscommunications led to USC calling two time outs inside the Arkansas 10. Carolina converted a fourth down to push the ball to the Razorback one, but the defense held again and after a delay of game, USC settled for a 23-yard field goal from Spencer Lanning.

The 3-0 lead lasted just under 90 seconds as the Razorbacks paired a 39-yard screen pass to Green with an 18-yard end sweep for Adams. Adams' touchdown run closed the four-play, 60-yard drive and a 7-3 lead with 1:24 left.

Arkansas stopped Carolina's next drive, but the Razorbacks went with a fake punt on fourth and two on their own 26. Ronnie Wingo Jr. never had a chance as the Gamecock rush caught him in the backfield. Four plays later, Garcia's one-yard quarterback sneak put Carolina back ahead, 10-10.

The teams traded drives and field position until the final 22 seconds of the half. Carolina ran down the clock on its final possession, knowing they would open the second half with the ball, and punted to Arkansas at the Hogs' 24.

Mallett made a short pass to Williams near the 30-yard line, and the big tight end slipped the first Carolina tackler near the 35. Forcing two more to miss, Williams headed for the far sideline to pickup blocking. Cutting back near the USC 15-yard line, Williams lunged away from the pursuit to put Arkansas at the Gamecock six. Arkansas had time for one shot at the end zone before Tejada came on for a 14-yard field goal to send the teams to the locker room tied, 10-10.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

GAME 10

TROY 20

NOVEMBER 14, 2009 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 66,442 TV: CSS/CST

The Arkansas Razorbacks got bowl eligible with a night filled with record performances in a 56-20 drubbing of Troy University at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Sophomore quarterback Ryan Mallett tied his own school record with five touchdown passes, and did so in style by hitting five different receivers for the scores.

The sophomore threw for 405 yards, three shy of his career best, hitting 23-of-30 with one interception to mar his night.

Mallett also claimed the school records for consecutive attempts without an interception before that one miscue, and broke Clint Stoerner's single-season passing record. He also tied Stoerner with his fourth 300-plus passing game of the season.

In claiming the single-season passing mark at Arkansas during the game, Mallett connected with Joe Adams, Greg Childs, D.J. Williams, Jarius Wright and Ronnie Wingo Jr.

Wingo had a pair of touchdowns, one rushing and one off an 83-yard reception, as the Razorbacks had touchdowns in every quarter.

While offense got a lot of attention, a hallmark of the game was Arkansas' defense, three times ending Troy drives into Razorback territory with field goal attempts, only two of which were good. The Razorbacks were playing without their defensive coordinator, Willy Robinson, who was taken to the hospital from the Broyles Center on Friday before the game. He did not coach in the game, and remained at the hospital being treated for an infection.

The Trojans made it interesting at the end of the first half with a drive ending in a field goal just before halftime, then another field goal to open the second half.

The difference was Arkansas matched Troy three-pointers with touchdowns. Mallett methodically picked apart the Trojans for a five-play, 80-yard drive on Arkansas' first possession of the third quarter, going to Williams for the final 28 yards and a 35-13 lead.

The Trojans put together their first touchdown drive of the second half midway through the third, reaching into the bag of tricks for a Wildcat formation reverse that ended in wide receiver Jonathan Chandler's hands for a pass complete for a 17-yard touchdown to Andrew Davis to cut the spread to 35-20.

Mallett matched the Troy score with yet another 80-yard drive, this one six plays ending with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Wright. It started with a 46-yard run by Johnson from running back, and a punishing run later inside the Troy red zone to set the nine-yard TD.

Matt Harris ended the nation's longest streak without an interception with only the second pick of his career. The senior spied out Levi Brown on the Trojans' third drive, ending the nation's longest streak at 265 and just a handful shy of the NCAA record for consecutive flawless passing.

The interception briefly gave the nation's longest active streak to Mallett as he broke the Arkansas season mark of Stoerner, but a Troy pick ended his streak at 141 late in the second quarter.

In addition to Mallett's passing marks, Dennis Johnson's 37-yard run back on the second kickoff of the game by Troy made him the all-time leader in kickoff returns. Senior Michael Smith got his 2,000th career rushing yard early in the first quarter, and closed with 21 on the day to move his overall to 2,018 yards.

Mallett opened the game with the first of his 80-yard drives. The 10-play march ended with a 23-yard touchdown rifled through the Troy secondary to Adams.

Arkansas picked up its second TD off a one-yard run for Green to cap an 11-play, 55-yard drive to put the Razorbacks up 14-0 at 6:13 in the first quarter.

After managing only 29 yards on its first three drives, Troy came alive for a 10-play, 69-yard drive and the first touchdown of the night for the Trojans, a three-yard pass from Brown to Jason Bruce. Arkansas responded with a pair of short drives, the first for 58-yards and capped with a 16-yard run by Wingo. The next was four plays ending with Mallett's second TD of the night, this one a 13 yarder to Childs.

Arkansas finished out the game with an 83-yard screen reception for a TD by Wingo after stopping the Trojans on downs in the fourth quarter.

Place kicker Alex Tejada tied the career record for point after attempts with his 125th following Wingo's late touchdown.

On the night, Wright led the Razorbacks in catches with five for 67 yards, but Wingo had the yardage lead with his single 83 yarder. Adams finished with four catches for 74 yards, and Williams also four for 62. Childs had three for 37.

Johnson led Arkansas' rushing with 58 yards on four carries, while Green led with eight carries to produce his 45 yards. Smith had six carries for 21 yards.

ARKANSAS 42

MISSISSIPPI ST. 21

Ryan Mallett guided the Arkansas Razorbacks to another offensive explosion, racking up five touchdown passes in a 42-21 beating of Mississippi State in the final home game of the season.

The sophomore became the first Razorback in the 100-plus year history of football to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a single season.

Against MSU, Mallett tied his own school record with five touchdown passes. Twice he went for 50-yard plus passes to freshman Cobi Hamilton who led the Razorbacks with 131 yards receiving.

He closed with 18-of-34 for 313 yards and his five touchdowns.

Giving up 21 unanswered points to Arkansas in the first half, Mississippi State changed quarterbacks and styles to begin the second half. The change turned what looked to be a runaway into an interesting and competitive third quarter.

Chris Relf directed an 11-play, 94-yard drive exclusively on the ground. Anthony Dixon broke over 100 yards for the game with the four-yard touchdown run to cut Arkansas' lead to seven, 21-14, with just over nine minutes left in the third quarter.

Mallett wasted no time breaking Mississippi State's momentum and a pair of Stoerner's records on the first possession of the second half. Mallett found Cobi Hamilton cutting under the State coverage. Four downfield receiver blocks and four evaded or broken tackles by Hamilton later, Mallett had his 27th career touchdown pass on the 64-yard effort.

Dixon matched Mallett on the next play, taking the handoff from Relf, bounding off two Razorbacks before breaking into the open for the 70-yard touchdown to return the margin to seven, 28-21.

For the day, Dixon finished with 24 carries for 176 yards, but after his touchdown run was neutralized by Arkansas' defensive adjustments.

Arkansas put the score back to two TDs with a six-play, 50-yard drive, moved along by a pair of D.J. Williams first down receptions. Mallett evaded two Bulldog rushers, and throwing off his back foot on the run to Greg Childs for the back of the end zone made it 35-21. It was Mallett's fifth TD pass, tying his own Arkansas record.

Arkansas' defense dug in against the Bulldogs, changing their approach to shut down State with two three-and-outs and no more scoring after the Dixon breakaway.

Following State's last ditch drive ending on downs, Arkansas marched up field for its only rushing touchdown of the game, a two-yarder from Broderick Green and the final margin of 42-21.

After the opening kickoff, it didn't look like the smooth offensive game it became for the Razorbacks. Arkansas' offense started rough with a pass batted down by Mississippi State on first down, then an interception by Corey Broomfield to give the Bulldogs the ball on their own 48-yard line.

Chad Bumphis picked the deep snap up off the ground as MSU went into a Wildcat formation. The miscue didn't limit the freshman "H" backs' run as he hit the right corner and turned up field through a large hole. Rudell Crim saved the touchdown by pushing him out of bounds 49 yards later, Arnell Stallworth took it the last yard for the score and a 7-0 lead.

Arkansas came right back with a four-play TD drive of its own, set up by a 31-yard kickoff return by Johnson. Mallett got his passing back on stride with a 21-yard first-down pass to Jarius Wright to put Arkansas into MSU territory. Mallett first tried to go to the end zone for Crawford, broken up by Marcus Washington, then found a wide open Joe Adams at the five-yard line. The Little Rock sophomore broke two tackles for the 39-yard touchdown.

The teams traded punts for the next four possessions before the first of a pair of record-tying touchdown passes by Mallett.

Mallett stepped back and lofted the ball deep, a good 45 yards in the air to the State 10-yard line where Hamilton took it over the shoulder in full stride. The 59-yard strike tied Mallett with Stoerner for the highest single-season touchdown responsibility by a Razorback (29). The four-play, 68-yard drive gave Arkansas its first lead of the game, 14-7.

Arkansas kept the scoring streak going on its next possession. State went three-and-out to punt to the Razorback 21-yard line. Using 11 plays to move up field on the longest drive - distance or time - of the half for either team, Mallett capped it off by hitting a wide open Wright for a five-yard score. This touchdown tied Mallett with Stoerner for most touchdown passes in a season.

On the day, Arkansas racked up 396 total yards with 22 first downs and considerable balance. Johnson closed with 11 carries for 40 yards while Green had nine carries for 25 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 12

OT ARKANSAS 30

NOVEMBER 28, 2009 • BATON ROUGE, LA.
TIGER STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 93,013 TV: ESPN

NO. 17 (AP) NO. 17 (USA TODAY) LSU 33

Ryan Mallett got everything he needed for a legendary touchdown drive, but his LSU counterpart Jordan Jefferson put his kicker, Josh Jasper, into position twice in the closing moments.

Jasper tied the LSU school record with four field goals as LSU escaped the comeback Arkansas Razorbacks with a 33-30 overtime victory before a crowd of 93,013 at Tiger Stadium.

Jefferson passed for 179 yards and Trindon Holliday combined for 166 all-purpose yards to lead LSU.

The Razorbacks saw their winning streak snapped, but close the regular season at 7-5 overall and 3-5 in league play.

The Razorbacks had one of their most balanced offensive days, racking up 148 yards rushing and 227 yards passing.

Down four, Mallett was presented with his opportunity to create his own Razorback legend. Starting at his own 25-yard line, Mallett directed a 12-play drive that culminated with Joe Adams' 14-yard touchdown reception with 1:18 left in the game.

Adams figured twice in the drive, first by taking a crushing helmet-to-helmet blow at the goal line, with the resulting personal foul putting Arkansas at the LSU 14-yard line. Alex Tejada's point after put Arkansas ahead for the first time since the opening minutes of the game.

Jefferson responded for LSU, moving the Tigers 41 yards in just 64 sections to set up the tying field goal with eight seconds left for Jasper.

In the overtime, both teams stalled on the 19-yard line. Arkansas played defense first, putting the game on Jasper's toe. He hit the 36-yarder for his fourth of the game. Arkansas reached the same 19, but Tejada's kick went wide right.

The second half was a back-and-forth offensive battle.

D.D. Jones tipped a pass and Jerry Franklin hauled it in on the Tiger 45, returning it to the LSU 28. Ronnie Wingo Jr. took over with three carries to close the short-field drive, his last being a 13-yard ramble up the middle, breaking left off tacklers, for the touchdown. Tejada's PAT made it 17-13 with 12:24 left in the third.

Jefferson drove LSU 67 yards on nine plays, capping it with a 15-yard pass to Deangelo Peterson, to return the spread to 11, 24-13.

The Razorbacks matched with a 77-yard, seven-play drive of their own, with Mallett's 19-yard pass to Jarius Wright pushing Arkansas upfield. Broderick Green went into the end zone untouched for the final nine yards.

Jefferson moved LSU to midfield, but a combination of penalties and Razorback defense stalled the Tigers. Arkansas took the next possession 62 yards for a third Tejada field goal, this one 40 yards, to cut the Tiger margin to one, 24-23.

Jefferson pushed the Tigers 55 yards up the field, converting two clutch third down plays, to set up a 47-yard field goal for Jasper with 4:05 left, 27-23, to set the stage for the final two drives.

The Razorbacks opened the game with a quick drive into LSU territory, but a pass that floated high for Mallett near the LSU five-yard line stopped the Razorbacks as Chad Jones made the pick for LSU.

LSU was unable to get on track offensively, and Arkansas marched back up field to set up a career-tying 47-yard field goal for Tejada.

The Tigers came back with 17 unanswered points, starting with a 16-yard touchdown strike to Brandon LaFell from Jefferson.

The drive was fueled by a pair of Holliday carries of 19 and 12 yards.

LSU extended its lead to 10-3 with a 47-yard field goal by Jasper.

Arkansas struggled in the air most of the first half as Mallett hit only seven of his 20 attempts. Still, the 91 yards in the air for Arkansas allowed the Razorbacks to have a statistical advantage at halftime.

Special teams proved the difference early, as the Tigers got an 87-yard punt return from Holliday for their second score.

LSU pinned Arkansas deep at its own five, and looked like it would pick up great field position until a fumbled reception on the punt gave the ball back to Arkansas.

The Razorbacks were unable to take advantage of that special teams miscue, but shortly thereafter used good field position from a shanked LSU punt to drive for a second score.

Scrambling most of the night early, Mallett evaded the Tiger rush to find Adams for a key gain into LSU territory. Picking up another LSU rush with a play check, Mallett handed to Johnson for 10, and a 15-yard personal foul for a facemask set the Razorbacks up with less than a minute left deep in Tiger territory. Mallett sailed a pair of passes high before Tejada came on for his second field goal, a 35-yarder, to end the half.

DIXIE CLASSIC Arkansas 7, Centenary 7 Dallas, Texas - January 1, 1934

1934

Arkansas and Centenary each scored in the second quarter and the Razorbacks' first bowl appearance ended in a 7-7 tie. An estimated 12,000 fans witnessed the final Dixie Classic contest, the forerunner of the modern Cotton Bowl.

The first period of play was scoreless as neither team could gain a foothold. In the second quarter, Hog quarterback Tom Murphy mounted a long drive climaxed by a 24-yard touchdown pass to Elvin Geiser. Geiser tacked on the PAT and the Razorbacks led 7-0.

In the second quarter, Centenary got rolling behind the running of Harold Olsin and the throwing of Manning Smith.

First, Olsin broke for a 37-yard sprint to the Hog 25. Then, Smith found Olsin alone at the goal line for a 20-yard touchdown pass. Centenary missed the extra point attempt but Arkansas was off sides. On the next try, Chester Weidman kicked the extra point for a 7-7 tie.

Arkansas made one last drive that fell short. The Hogs drove to the Centenary seven-yard line and a 14-yard winning field goal attempt by Geiser was wide.

Razorback punter Tom Murphy had 13 kicks for a 44.0 average.

Centenary was undefeated in regular season play and the Razorbacks had claimed seven wins against three losses and their first Southwest Conference championship. The Hogs later forfeited the title for playing an ineligible athlete.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

COTTON BOWL Arkansas 0, LSU 0 Dallas, Texas – January 1, 1947

1947

Thirty-eight thousand fans shivered through snow and mid-20 degree weather to see SWC champion Arkansas duel the LSU Tigers to a 0-0 tie. It was the first scoreless Cotton Bowl game.

All 45,507 Cotton Bowl tickets had been sold, but about 7,000 people decided a warm fire would be better than a cold game.

The underdog Razorbacks continually had their backs to the wall as the Y.A. Tittle led Tigers pushed inside their 10-yard line five times in the first half.

A fanatical Hog defense stopped LSU drives at the Arkansas one, six, seven and eight-yard lines. Each time the Tigers were forced to turn the football over to the Razorbacks on downs.

The Razorback offense managed its only offensive sweep of the day during the first period and penetrated to the LSU 29-yard line.

The Hogs made their only first down the second time they had the football.

In the third quarter, Tittle drove the Tigers deep into Hog territory but Razorback halfback Clyde Scott made the play of the game when he tackled receiver Jeff Odom at the Arkansas one-yard line. The frustrated Bengals tried a field goal from the 15-yard line, but a bad snap terminated the try with time running out on the clock.

The game ended with the Tigers threatening from the one-yard line. But the scrappy Razorback defense, bending but not breaking, saved the tie.

End Alton Baldwin, who earned All-America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game.

DIXIE BOWL Arkansas 21, William & Mary 19 Birmingham, Ala. – January 1, 1948

1948

A crowd of 21,000 watched Arkansas make a come-from-behind touchdown drive to win the inaugural Dixie Bowl, 21-19, over William & Mary.

William & Mary took an early lead after the Indians recovered a fumbled quick-kick attempt on the Arkansas six-yard line. Jack Cloud plunged over from the one for the initial score and teammate Stan Magdziak added the extra point to put William & Mary in front 7-0.

The Indians scored again moments later as Cloud plowed into the end zone for his second tally of the day, climaxing a 78-yard scoring march. Magdziak's PAT was wide and the score was 13-0.

Arkansas quarterback Kenny Holland passed to Ross Pritchard for a 59-yard scoring strike and Aubrey Fowler added the extra point to make it 13-7.

Then, defensive halfback Melvin McGaha picked off an Indian aerial and returned it 70 yards to tie the game at 13-all. Fowler tacked on the PAT and the Hogs led 14-13.

The Indians retaliated when Magdziak threw to Henry Bland for their final score.

Not to be denied, the Razorbacks marched 97 yards in the final period. Leon Campbell scored from the seven-yard line with five minutes left to play. Fowler added his third PAT of the day.

COTTON BOWL

Ga. Tech 14, Arkansas 6
Dallas, Texas – January 1, 1955

Arkansas' fourth bowl trip proved disastrous with Georgia Tech dealing the Razorbacks their first post-season loss, 14-6. The Hogs kept up with the bruising Tech attack in the first half rolling up 131 yards rushing, and driving 80 yards in 11 plays to score their only touchdown.

Arkansas quarterback George Walker mixed running with passing in the Hogs' scoring drive. He sent fullback Henry Moore up the middle for gains of 18 and 13 yards. Then with the ball on the Tech 23-yard line, Walker passed to end Joe Thomason at the one. On the next play, Walker called his own number and went in for the score. The PAT failed and the Hogs led 6-0 at the half.

Georgia Tech, led by the game's most valuable back, George Humphrey, cranked up a powerful ground assault in the final two periods with 285 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Tech's first score was a three-yard run by Paul Rotenberry. He took a pitch-out from Humphrey and followed a convoy of blockers three yards into the end zone. A successful PAT gave Tech a 7-6 lead.

Tech capitalized on a pass interception by Wade Mitchell to go 43 yards in 10 plays for its final score. Mitchell used the belly series to move his team to the goal line and then sneaked the ball over from the one. Guard Bud Brooks, who earned All-America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game.

Frank Broyles, who later became Arkansas' head coach in 1958, was an assistant to Tech coach Bobby Dodd in this game.

GATOR BOWL

Arkansas 14, Ga. Tech 7
Jacksonville, Fla. – January 2, 1960

A sellout crowd of 45,104 packed the Gator Bowl to see Arkansas' Frank Broyles make his bowl debut as head coach. And to add to the drama, Broyles was sending his team against his alma mater and his college coach, Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech.

A solid Razorback running game, led by All-American halfback Jim Mooty, snapped Dodd's perfect bowl record with a 14-7 Arkansas victory.

Tech ate up most of the first quarter with ball control as the Ramblin' Wreck kept possession for the first 11:04 of the game. The drive ended with a missed field goal attempt at the Arkansas eight-yard line.

On the second play from scrimmage following an Arkansas punt, Georgia Tech quarterback Marvin Tibbetts went to his left, found plenty of running room, and went 51 yards for the game's first score.

The Razorbacks took control in the second quarter. Mooty, Jim Monroe, Lance Alworth and Joe Paul Alberty pounded out 62 yards in 18 plays. Alberty climaxed the drive from the one for the score. Freddy Akers kicked the PAT and the game was 7-7 at the half.

Midway in the third period, Mooty got the Hogs on the move again with a 24-yard scamper. Alworth added 23 yards in two plays and Mooty went the last 19 yards for the touchdown. Akers again converted and the Razorbacks had their first Broyles bowl victory, 14-7.

Mooty was the game's leading rusher with 99 yards in 18 carries. He also was selected the outstanding performer in the contest.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

COTTON BOWL Duke 7, Arkansas 6 Dallas, Texas – January 1, 1961

A fourth-quarter aerial attack by Duke's Don Altman and Tee Moorman dashed Arkansas' hopes of a victory in the Cotton Bowl's Silver Anniversary game.

A Razorback triumph over Atlantic Coast Conference champion Duke was in sight throughout the contest, but in the end, the Blue Devils turned back Arkansas' efforts to win the Dallas festival for the first time.

The first half was a defensive standoff. Both teams were forced to punt after stalled drives. The Razorbacks threatened once in the closing minutes of the first half when Arkansas All-American Lance Alworth took a George McKinney pass to the Blue Devil 13-yard line. The threat was stalled by a penalty, and on the next play, McKinney's pass was intercepted in the end zone.

Midway through the third period, Alworth leaped high to catch a bad punt center snap. In full flight he kicked the ball down the sideline and out of bounds at the Duke two. Three plays later, Duke was forced to punt from its own end zone. Alworth took the kick on Duke's 49-yard line and the fleet back zig-zagged to the goal for the score. Mickey Cissel's PAT was blocked and the score was 6-0 Arkansas.

In the fourth quarter, Duke's air attack went to work and produced a 73-yard touchdown drive. Duke quarterback Altman hit his lonesome end, Moorman, for five short passes, the final being a nine-yard touchdown. Art Browning tacked on the go-ahead PAT and Duke won 7-6.

Alworth, who had 74 yards tandem offense, returned two kickoffs for 50 yards and accounted for the lone Razorback score with his 49-yard punt return, was selected the outstanding back in the game.

SUGAR BOWL Alabama 10, Arkansas 3 New Orleans, La. – January 1, 1962

After winning its third consecutive Southwest Conference title, Arkansas traveled to New Orleans where the Razorbacks fell to top-ranked Alabama, 10-3.

The Crimson Tide had established the toughest defense in the nation, having allowed only 22 points all season. Coach Bear Bryant's team was led by quarterback Pat Trammell, fullback Mike Fracchia and defensive guard Billy Neighbors, each named All-America.

The Tide's defenders kept Arkansas backed-up on its own end of the field the first half.

Fracchia exploded on a 43-yard run to the Razorback 12-yard line, and Trammell scored on the next play. Tim Davis kicked the extra point and Alabama led 7-0 in the first quarter.

The Tide finished its scoring in the second period. Trammell guided his team to the Arkansas 22-yard line and Davis kicked a 32-yard field goal. The three pointer made the score 10-0 at the half.

The Razorbacks were forced to play catch-up football the second half, so Arkansas quarterback George McKinney went to the air.

A 24-yard pass to Lance Alworth put the Hogs on 'Bama's 22-yard line. Then McKinney drove the Hogs to the eight-yard line. The drive stalled, and Mickey Cissel kicked a 23-yard field goal.

A 32-yard pass, again to Alworth, started the Hogs on a fourth quarter drive. The threat was stopped, however, when 'Bama's Butch Wilson stole his second McKinney pass of the day and Alabama ran out the clock.

SUGAR BOWL 1963

Ole Miss 17, Arkansas 13
New Orleans, La. - January 1, 1963

Making its second consecutive visit to the Sugar Bowl, out-manned Arkansas forced Mississippi quarterback Glynn Griffing to display all of his passing skills to lead the favored Rebels to a 17-13 victory.

The Razorbacks, after twice seeing Ole Miss get a lead, rallied gamely to tie the score at 3-3 in the second quarter, and 10-10 shortly after the final half began.

However, Griffing brought the Rebels back to a 17-10 lead on a 10-play, 80-yard drive and Arkansas could not get any closer to the Mississippi goal line than field goal range.

Arkansas established two Sugar Bowl records. Tom McNelly, a sophomore from Little Rock, kicked two field goals, the most by any player in the New Orleans classic, from 30 and 22 yards.

And a pass covering 68 yards from quarterback Billy Gray to end Jerry Lamb was the longest play in Sugar Bowl history.

A five-yard pass from Billy Moore to Jesse Branch in the third quarter gave the Razorbacks their only touchdown.

Ole Miss retaliated with a touchdown and a 17-10 lead but the Razorbacks could only get close enough for McNelly's second three-pointer.

Lamb caught three passes for 107 yards.

COTTON BOWL 1965

Arkansas 10, Nebraska 7
Dallas, Texas - January 1, 1965

Undefeated Arkansas staked its claim on the 1964 national championship with a thrilling 10-7 victory over Big Eight Champion Nebraska in the 29th Cotton Bowl festival before a standing-room-only crowd of 75,504.

The Razorbacks, following a short Nebraska punt, jumped to a quick lead on a 31-yard field goal by Tom McNelly.

Nebraska, however, took the lead in the second period following an Arkansas punt. Halfback Harry Wilson ended a 69-yard, 10-play march with a one-yard run with 7:45 remaining. The extra point provided the Huskers with a 7-3 halftime margin.

The two teams played scoreless football in the third period. The Razorbacks, on the passing of quarterback Fred Marshall, rallied late in the fourth period to produce the winning touchdown. Passes to Jim Lindsey, Jerry Lamb and Bobby Burnett pushed the Hogs 80 yards in nine plays. Burnett got the touchdown with 4:41 remaining on a three-yard run.

Successive plays by the Arkansas defense secured the victory. After Nebraska earned a first down at midfield, linebacker Ronnie MacSmith and tackle Jim Williams dropped Frank Churchich for a nine-yard loss. Following a seven-yard completion, tackle Loyd Phillips stopped an end-around for no gain. On fourth down, Williams spilled Churchich for a 15-yard loss.

Center Ronnie Caveness, who earned All-America honors, was selected the outstanding lineman in the game and is a member of the 1960-69 Cotton Bowl Classic All-Star team.

Marshall, who completed 11 of 19 passes for 131 yards, was named the outstanding back.

COTTON BOWL LSU 14, Arkansas 7 Dallas, Texas – January 1, 1966

Arkansas returned to the Cotton Bowl with a 22-game winning streak, only to have old nemesis LSU snap it with a 14-7 upset.

The Razorbacks began the contest impressively enough, taking the ball from their own 13-yard line and marching 87 yards for a first period score. The touchdown came on a 19-yard pass from Jon Brittenum to All-America end Bobby Crockett. Ronny South's PAT made it 7-0.

LSU launched a pair of scoring drives in the second period. The first was capped by a three-yard thrust by Joe LaBruzzo, who was voted the game's outstanding back. LaBruzzo's score climaxed an 80-yard drive by the Bengals after a missed field goal by South. LSU kicked the extra point to tie the game 7-7.

On the first play from scrimmage following the Tiger score, tragedy struck the Razorbacks. Brittenum suffered a shoulder injury and was forced to leave the game. Two plays later, the Hogs fumbled on their own 35-yard line and the Tigers took over.

LSU quarterback Nelson Stokley took advantage of the opportunity and passed the Tigers to the Arkansas 19-yard line. LaBruzzo then carried five times, the last a one-yard scoring plunge. The PAT gave LSU a 14-7 halftime lead.

Brittenum returned to the game in the second half and put the ball in the air to Crockett, who set a bowl record with 10 catches for 129 yards, in an attempt to go over a tough Tiger defense.

Arkansas had driven to the LSU 24-yard line when the clock ran out.

SUGAR BOWL Arkansas 16, Georgia 2 New Orleans, La. – January 1, 1969

A sell-out throng gathered at Tulane Stadium for the 35th Sugar Bowl Classic, featuring the Arkansas Razorbacks, co-champions of the Southwest Conference and undefeated Georgia.

Even though Georgia stood among the national leaders in defense, it was swarming, ball-hawking Arkansas which gained defensive honors by recovering five fumbles and intercepting four passes.

Miller-Digby Award (Outstanding Player) winner Chuck Dicus, with 12 receptions for 169 yards and the game's only touchdown, and kicker Bob White, with a Sugar Bowl record three field goals, supplied the points as the Porkers recorded a 16-2 victory.

With 2:55 remaining in the first period, Arkansas started its first and only touchdown drive. Riding the passing arm of Bill Montgomery, the Hogs scored when Montgomery hit Dicus for 23 yards and the touchdown.

Georgia soon countered with a safety when David McKnight tackled Bill Burnett in the end zone. Arkansas, after holding on downs at its own 29, struck back as passes to Dicus and Max Peacock set up a 34-yard field goal by White for a 10-2 lead.

White booted a 24-yard field goal midway through the final period. A pass interception by All-American linebacker Cliff Powell led to the final Arkansas score, a 31-yard field goal by White.

SUGAR BOWL 1970

Ole Miss 27, Arkansas 22
New Orleans, La. - January 1, 1970

Despite a record-breaking offensive performance Arkansas fell just short in a frantic, fourth period comeback as Ole Miss prevailed, 27-22. Archie Manning hit 21 of 35 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown. Bill Montgomery completed 17 of 34 aeriels for 338 yards and two touchdowns for the Hogs.

Following a missed field goal by the Porkers, the Rebs stunned the Hogs when Bo Bowen ramblbed 69 yards for an early touchdown. Arkansas followed with another missed three-pointer, and Manning drove the Rebs another 80 yards, keeping the ball himself for the final 18.

Arkansas finally broke the ice on a 12-yard sweep by Bill Burnett, but the Rebels responded with 10 more points. Cloyce Hinton booted a record-breaking 52-yard field goal, and Manning fired a 30-yard scoring pass to Vernon Studdard.

A pass from Montgomery to Chuck Dicus covered 47 yards giving the Hogs their second touchdown.

Porker fullback Bruce Maxwell, who gained 103 yards on the ground, took a six-yard touchdown pass from Montgomery for the final Razorback score.

LIBERTY BOWL 1971

Tenn.14, Arkansas 13
Memphis, Tenn. - December 20, 1971

A Liberty Bowl record crowd of 51,410 plus a national Monday night television audience saw Arkansas lose to Tennessee, 14-13.

Tennessee scored first on a two-yard run by Bill Rudder with 6:39 left in the first period. George Hunt kicked the extra point. But the Razorbacks soon tied the score as Joe Ferguson connected with Jim Hodge on a 36-yard touchdown pass. Bill McClard's extra point made the score 7-7 with 4:11 left in the half.

The Razorbacks finally gained the lead with 13:14 left in the final period on a 19-yard field goal by McClard.

Louis Campbell's second pass interception put McClard in position for another field goal with 8:51 left. The 30-yard kick, which tied a Liberty Bowl record, put Arkansas in command, 13-7.

A record third pass theft by Campbell presented Arkansas with an apparent chance to seal up the contest. However, McClard's field goal, which would have given the Porkers a 16-7 margin, was nullified by penalty.

Further misfortune struck the Razorbacks on a fumble at their own 36-yard line. The Vols scored three plays after recovering, on a 17-yard run by Curt Watson. Hunt's extra point provided Tennessee with a 14-13 lead with 1:56 left.

Ferguson, voted the game's outstanding player, completed 18 of 28 passes for 200 yards, and Campbell was selected the outstanding defensive player in the game.

COTTON BOWL Arkansas 31, Georgia 10 Dallas, Texas - January 1, 1976

Riding a five-game winning streak at the end of the 1975 campaign that notched a share of the Southwest Conference championship and a trip to the Cotton Bowl, the Razorbacks continued their winning ways with a resounding 31-10 triumph over Georgia.

Arkansas thus returned the Cotton Bowl crown to the SWC for the first time in three years.

With the Razorbacks trailing 10-0 less than two minutes before half-time, linebacker Hal McAfee pounced on a Georgia fumble on the Bulldog 15 and Steve Little booted a 39-yard field goal. Georgia tried a trick play, the "shoe-string," but Tommy Harris forced a fumble. McAfee again recovered, and Ike Forte scored two plays later to tie it 10-10 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Scott Bull hit Freddie Douglas with a 36-yard pass to set up the go-ahead touchdown and Rolland Fuchs scored on a five-yard run. Michael Forrest and Forte added touchdowns as the Razorbacks rolled.

McAfee, with 12 tackles and an interception to go with his two fumble recoveries, was selected the game's outstanding defensive player. Forte, with an Arkansas bowl record of 119 yards, was chosen the outstanding offensive player.

ORANGE BOWL Arkansas 31, Okla. 6 Miami, Fla. - January 2, 1978

Arkansas turned a couple of first quarter turnovers into touchdowns and the Razorbacks cruised to a 31-6 upset victory over Oklahoma's second-ranked Big Eight champions before an Orange Bowl crowd of 74,422 and a national television audience of over 65 million.

Oklahoma lost 11 yards on three plays before Billy Sims fumbled and Jimmy Walker recovered at the Sooner nine. Two plays later, Roland Sales scored from a yard out and Arkansas led, 7-0 with only 1:59 elapsed.

After both teams failed to score on drives, OU fullback Kenny King fumbled and Dan Hampton recovered at the Razorback 42. Sales set up Ron Calcagni's one-yard run with a 38-yard scamper to the Sooner three. Steve Little's second of four PAT's made the score 14-0.

After Little's field goal made it 17-0, the Razorbacks went 82 yards for a touchdown with 4:40 to play in the third quarter. Sales, who finished the night with an Orange Bowl record of 205 yards rushing, had carries of 12 and 38 yards before scoring on a four-yard run. A reserve all season, Sales was only in the lineup after the Hog's top two tailbacks were suspended for breaking team rules.

Each team scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Sales earned outstanding back honors, while nose guard Reggie Freeman picked up the outstanding lineman award.

FIESTA BOWL 1978

Arkansas 10, UCLA 10
Tempe, Ariz. - December 25, 1978

Arkansas jumped on UCLA for a 10-0 halftime lead, but the Bruins picked up a pair of second half scores to secure a 10-10 tie in the eighth Fiesta Bowl before 55,202 fans at Sun Devil Stadium.

The Razorbacks enjoyed excellent field position early but couldn't put points on the board. However, the Bruins wasted a 96-yard first period march which resulted in a missed field goal.

After a Razorback punt, the defense came to life again as Jim Howard slammed UCLA quarterback Steve Bukich to the ground, causing a fumble which Dale White recovered at the Bruin 37. Some 11 plays later, Roland Sales swept right end for four yards and a touchdown.

Later in the second period, Kevin Scanlon hit Gary Stiggers for 14 yards, Darryl Mason for 15 yards and Ben Cowins ran for 16 more to set up a 37-yard Ish Ordonez field goal.

UCLA marched 16 plays with the third quarter kickoff, keeping the drive alive on a fake punt which set up Peter Boermaester's 41-yard field goal. That cut the Hog lead to 10-3 with 7:19 left in the third quarter.

An interference penalty on a punt set the Bruins up at midfield and Bukich, who hit on only four of 11 passes with two interceptions, connected with Severne Reece for 34 yards to the Arkansas 14. A play later, Bukich kept around left end for the tying touchdown with 8:32 left.

Neither team could cross midfield the remainder of the game, although Thomas Brown hauled back a UCLA punt to the Bruin 32 as time expired.

Jimmy Walker, who had 10 tackles and wrought havoc in the UCLA back-field all day, was selected the game's outstanding defensive player.

SUGAR BOWL 1980

Alabama 24, Arkansas 9
New Orleans, La. - January 1, 1980

While Alabama handed Arkansas one of its worst bowl defeats ever in the 1980 Sugar Bowl, the Razorbacks might have been playing their strongest opponent in bowl history.

The Crimson Tide wrapped up its second consecutive national championship by pinning the Hogs with a 24-9 setback. However, it wasn't accomplished without difficulty.

Arkansas, ranked sixth nationally and co-champion of the Southwest Conference, recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff and struck first as Ish Ordonez drilled a 34-yard field goal.

Alabama snapped back to take a 17-3 halftime lead but Arkansas marched 80 yards on its first possession of the second half for a touchdown that sliced the gap to 17-9. Kevin Scanlon hit Robert Farrell with a three-yard scoring pass but the Hogs failed to convert a two-point conversion attempt.

The Razorbacks had their chance to get even midway through the second half. They drove from their own five to the Alabama 33 before Scanlon was sacked on third down. Bruce Lahay punted to the Crimson Tide two yard line and with 13:21 left, the Hogs were very much alive.

However, Alabama used a 35-yard gallop by Billy Jackson and a 22-yard dash by Steadman Shealy to key a 98-yard touchdown drive that iced the Tide victory.

Scanlon was brilliant in defeat for the Hogs, the SWC's outstanding offensive player during the regular season, Scanlon hit 22 of his 39 passes for 245 yards despite fierce pressure by the Bama pass rush.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

HALL OF FAME BOWL Arkansas 34, Tulane 15 Birmingham, Ala. - Dec. 27, 1980

Sophomore Gary Anderson exploded for 156 yards on just 11 carries and scored two touchdowns as Arkansas blitzed to a 28-0 halftime lead and breezed to a 34-15 victory over Tulane.

Anderson's efforts as well as those of a smothering first half defense allowed the Hogs to score more points than they ever had produced in a bowl game. Arkansas finished with only a 466-398 edge in total offense but by intermission the Porkers already had amassed 269 yards in offense and Anderson had returned a punt for a touchdown.

Arkansas grabbed a 7-0 advantage when Anderson's 44-yard dash set up a one-yard plunge by James Tolbert. Before the opening quarter ended, Anderson fielded a punt at his own 20, eluded an oncoming tackler and raced 80 yards for a touchdown.

After Tom Jones capped a 70-yard march with a three-yard scoring toss to tight end Steve Clyde, Anderson struck again. Named the game's outstanding player, Anderson took a pitch from Jones, reversed his field and roared 46 yards for a touchdown to make it 28-0.

Arkansas' defense, spearheaded by end Billy Ray Smith (who gained defensive player of the game honors), was stingy when it had to be. The Razorbacks allowed Tulane ace quarterback Nickie Hall to complete just 16 of his 37 passes and had the Green Wave blanked until the final quarter. Ish Ordonez booted a pair of second half field goals for Arkansas' other points.

GATOR BOWL N.C. 31, Arkansas 27 Jacksonville, Fla. - Dec. 28, 1981

Freshman quarterback Brad Taylor ignited a fourth quarter flurry that produced two touchdowns in the final five minutes and five seconds but Arkansas' final period comeback fell just short in a 31-27 loss to North Carolina.

It was a bizarre setting as the Gator Bowl was smothered by fog during the last three quarters of a wild football game. The fog didn't slow Taylor, who passed for 307 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Unfortunately for the Razorbacks, the fog didn't slow North Carolina's rushing attack either as the Tar Heels gained 283 yards on the ground.

Trailing 3-0 in the early stages, Arkansas struck quickly on its third possession. On the first play following a North Carolina punt, Taylor found Derek Holloway open for a 66-yard touchdown pass that put the Hogs in front.

After the Tar Heels got a gift touchdown on a fumbled punt at the Hog six, Arkansas drove from its own 11 to the North Carolina 12 to set up a Bruce Lahay field goal that deadlocked the contest at 10-apiece just four seconds before half time.

North Carolina's awesome rushing assault proved deadly in the second half as the Tar Heels grounded out three touchdown drives to gain a 31-10 advantage with just 7:29 remaining.

Taylor started hitting everything in sight and his 44-yard strike to Holloway set up a three-yard plunge for a touchdown by Jessie Clark. Taylor passed to Clark for a two-point conversion with 5:05 left.

Ed Jackson then recovered an onside kick and the Hogs struck again. This time it was a 43-yard pass from Taylor to Holloway that set up the score on fourth and goal from the seven. Taylor found Darryl Mason for the touchdown.

North Carolina took an intentional safety late to close the scoring.

BLUEBONNET BOWL

Arkansas 28, Florida 24
Houston, Texas – Dec. 31, 1982

Gary Anderson exploded for a career high 161 yards rushing on 26 attempts and scored two touchdowns as Arkansas twice overcame 10-point deficits to trim Florida, 28-24, in the Razorback's initial appearance in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson, who also caught three passes for 37 yards, circled left end for 16 yards for a touchdown on the Hogs' first possession but Florida's passing attack produced enough fireworks to give the Gators a 17-7 halftime advantage.

Anderson hurdled a stacked defense for a one-yard touchdown on fourth-down midway through the third period but Florida struck quickly again and carried a 24-14 lead into the final quarter.

Senior Tom Jones made sure the Razorbacks would reward one of their best graduation classes ever with a victory when he passed five yards to Jessie Clark for a touchdown, then bulled a yard for a score to put the Hogs in front, 28-24.

Perhaps the most impressive march by the Razorbacks came on the final possession. Starting on its own six with 6:29 remaining, Arkansas killed the remaining time by driving all the way to the Gator 16. Daryl Bowles keyed the march by earning 13 yards on a third-and-nine.

Anderson was named the game's most valuable player, earning Arkansas bowl MVP honors for the third consecutive year.

LIBERTY BOWL

Auburn 21 Arkansas 15
Memphis, Tenn. – Dec. 27, 1984

Typical of the 1984 season, Arkansas staged a furious fourth quarter rally but this one fell short as the Razorbacks lost a narrow, 21-15 decision to pre-season national champion pick Auburn in the Liberty Bowl.

The Tigers took a 14-3 lead into the final quarter as a result of Bo Jackson's two-yard run and a 35-yard interception return by Kevin Porter for first quarter touchdowns. Arkansas had scored first on Greg Horne's 31-yard field goal.

Nathan Jones made the play that turned things around when his vicious tackle at the Auburn 37 jolted the ball loose and rolling toward the Tiger goal line. Jones finally recovered at the Auburn six. Three thrusts by fullback Marshall Foreman netted a Razorback touchdown.

The Hogs failed on a two-point conversion attempt, then found themselves in a hole again as Jackson roared 39 yards for a touchdown with 5:29 remaining.

Arkansas never surrendered, though. On fourth-and-18 at the Auburn 25, Brad Taylor found James Shibest open for a touchdown to make it 21-15. However, Auburn's ground control attack spent all but eight seconds of the remaining 2:28 to end Arkansas' hopes.

Auburn was held to a season low 168 yards rushing and just 252 yards in total offense by a swarming Razorback defense. Taylor led the Razorback offense with 18 completions in 34 attempts for 201 yards.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

HOLIDAY BOWL Arkansas 18, Ariz. St. 17 San Diego, Calif. - December 22, 1985

Freshman Kendall Trainor kicked a 37-yard field goal with just 21 seconds left to cap an exhilarating Arkansas comeback and give the Razorbacks an 18-17 victory over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

Arkansas trailed 14-7 entering the fourth quarter but pulled ahead when Holiday Bowl Most Valuable Player Bobby Joe Edmonds scooted 17 yards for a touchdown and quarterback Mark Calcagni dove into the end zone for the two-point conversion with 9:37 remaining.

An Arizona State field goal gave the Sun Devils a two-point advantage 5:23 from the conclusion but Edmonds dove for a first down on fourth-and-one and caught a 24-yard pass to keep alive the Hog's final march. Trainor ended the suspense with his three-pointer.

Calcagni was outstanding as he completed 10 of his 17 passes for 117 yards and gained 45 yards rushing on 16 carries. He engineered all of Arkansas' scoring drives, including a first-quarter march that ended with Derrick Thomas' nine-yard touchdown run. It gave the Hogs 7-3 lead at the time.

Arizona State had sliced the gap to 7-6 with a field goal before a Razorback gamble late in the first half backfired. On fourth and one at the Sun Devil 48, quarterback Greg Thomas just missed a deep pass to Edmonds on the sidelines, giving Arizona State possession in great field position.

The Sun Devils cashed in with a touchdown pass just 36 seconds from intermission. A successful two-point try gave Arizona State a 14-7 halftime lead and it stayed that way until Edmonds scored for the Hogs.

The victory was Arkansas' fourth come-from-behind in the fourth quarter triumph of the year. Arizona State became the ninth consecutive Razorback opponent to fail to score a rushing touchdown.

ORANGE BOWL Okla. 42, Arkansas 8 Miami, Fla. - January 1, 1987

Nine years after Arkansas pulled one of the most stunning upsets in Orange Bowl history by thumping Oklahoma, 31-6, the Sooners got their chance to redeem themselves. A pair of touchdown gallops in the first half by Spencer Tillman proved to be all Oklahoma would need as the Sooners downed the Razorbacks, 42-8.

Oklahoma had been held without a first down in the opening quarter but Tillman dashed 77 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the second period. Tillman scored again on a 21-yard run after an interception at the Sooner 46 and Arkansas never posed a threat the rest of the way.

The Razorbacks' deepest thrust in the first half reached the Oklahoma 25 at a time when it was only 7-0. However, Greg Thomas, who suffered only one interception during the regular season, had a pass picked off at the Sooner 13.

Oklahoma put the contest away with four second-half touchdowns. Arkansas scored late on a two-yard blast by fullback Derrick Thomas and a two-point pass from John Bland to James Shibest.

Arkansas had a lopsided statistical advantage at halftime with 11 first downs to four for Oklahoma but the two interceptions proved costly. The Hogs suffered five interceptions during the contest. Thomas did complete 13 of his 26 passes for 129 yards and Bland was three-for-seven for 63 yards.

LIBERTY BOWL Georgia 20, Arkansas 17 Memphis, Tenn. - December 29, 1987

John Kasay, a backup placekicker thrust into duty when the regular kicker was suspended, kicked a 39-yard field goal on the last play of the game to allow Georgia to come from behind and post its first-ever bowl victory over Arkansas.

Kasay's kick gave the Bulldogs a 20-17 triumph in a contest that was dominated by the Razorbacks for three quarters. It came after Georgia intercepted a Greg Thomas pass at the Hog 43 with 56 seconds left.

A 43-yard field goal by Kendall Trainor and a 10-yard Thomas touchdown run gave the Razorbacks a 10-7 halftime lead. Thomas scored again early in the third quarter to give the Hogs a 17-7 advantage. The second Thomas touchdown came after he had passed 26 yards to Billy Winston on fourth and one at the Georgia 27.

A short field goal by Kasay cut the Hog lead to seven and the Bulldogs took advantage of an interception at the Arkansas 39 to drive for the tying touchdown 10 minutes into the fourth quarter.

Arkansas responded with a magnificent drive from its 12 to the Georgia 18 that killed nearly nine minutes in clock time. The Hogs tried a short field goal but missed with 1:42 left. The Razorbacks then held the Bulldogs but threw the interception that turned into the winning field goal for Georgia.

Thomas led all rushers with 79 yards and passed for 86. He was named the Razorback offensive MVP. James Rouse added 72 yards rushing. Arkansas' defense held the leading rushing attack in the Southeastern Conference nearly 100 yards below its average and intercepted two passes but could not overcome the Razorback passes that were picked off.

COTTON BOWL UCLA 17, Arkansas 3 Dallas, Texas - January 2, 1989

UCLA smothered Arkansas with a devastating defensive effort and a brilliant performance by the Razorback defense was not enough as the Bruins spoiled the first Hog trip to the Cotton Bowl in 13 years with a 17-3 triumph at Dallas.

It was the initial season for the Cotton Bowl to be sponsored by Mobil Oil and nearly 60,000 Razorback fans helped fill the 74,000-plus seat stadium. Hog fans were chilled, even on a bright, sunny day, by the Bruin defense that limited Arkansas to an all-time low 42 yards in total offense.

After a quarter it looked like neither team would move the ball much. However, early in the second period the Bruins took advantage of a 15-yard late hit penalty that kept them from having to punt to keep alive a 93-yard drive for their first touchdown. UCLA converted five consecutive third down situations after the penalty.

The Bruins followed with a 74-yard march against the clock, scoring on a Troy Aikman pass with just 21 seconds left in the half.

Kendall Trainor gave the Razorbacks hope midway through the third quarter when he drilled a 49-yard field goal but the Bruins ate up the next eight minutes of clock time before Kerry Crawford pounced on a UCLA fumble at the Hog 10 early in the fourth period.

Arkansas never could muster another offensive drive and a late UCLA field goal finished the scoring. UCLA dominated possession time, 42:43 to 17:17, something Arkansas had dominated all year in its 10-1 regular season.

Linebacker LaSalle Harper was Arkansas' most valuable player with a stunning 20 tackles, a fumble recovery and an interception. Safety Steve Atwater had nine tackles for the Hogs.

RAZORBACK FOOTBALL

COTTON BOWL Tenn. 31, Arkansas 27 Dallas, Texas – January 1, 1990

Not even a record-setting offensive performance by Arkansas could overcome the devastating running of Tennessee's Chuck Webb as the Volunteers edged the Razorbacks, 31-27, in one of the most wide open Cotton Bowl games in years.

The Hogs earned a Cotton Bowl record 568 yards in total offense and 31 first downs but suffered a pair of turnovers inside the Tennessee 10-yard line that proved fatal.

Webb was sensational for the Vols, rushing for 205 yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries. His 78-yard scoring run put Tennessee ahead 31-13 before the Hogs came roaring back.

Barry Foster, who rushed for 103 yards and two touchdowns, scored from the one early in the fourth quarter and Quinn Grovey later hit Billy Winston with a pass that finished as a 67-yard touchdown play but the Hogs ran out of time.

James Rouse had a brilliant day for the Razorbacks with 134 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries and Grovey, who suffered from a pregame stomach virus, completed 12 of his 22 passes for 207 yards and a touchdown. However, he flipped a pass from the Volunteer two yard line that was intercepted at a time Arkansas led 6-3 and was dominating the game.

A sellout crowd of 74,358, including more than 50,000 Razorback fans, watched the offensive extravaganza. Linebackers Mick Thomas and Ty Mason spearheaded Arkansas' defensive effort with seven tackles each and Aaron Jackson and Patrick Williams each made an interception for the Hogs.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL Georgia 24, Arkansas 15 Shreveport, La. – Dec. 29, 1991

Andre Hastings' blazing speed accounted for a pair of Georgia touchdowns and Arkansas couldn't overcome five interceptions as the Razorbacks were defeated, 24-15, in the Independence Bowl.

Hastings scored on a brilliant catch of a 27-yard pass by Eric Zeier and ran 53 yards on a reverse for another touchdown. Zeier had another touchdown pass to open the scoring and Kanon Parkman kicked a 39-yard field goal for the Bulldogs.

The Hogs trailed 17-0 late in the second quarter when a short Georgia punt gave Arkansas the ball at the Bulldog 37. E.D. Jackson roared into the end zone for the Razorbacks from seven yards out with 35 seconds left in the half to cut the margin to 17-7.

Hastings' touchdown run early in the third quarter made it 24-7. Arkansas had several scoring chances in the second half but didn't reach the end zone again until Jackson's one-yard plunge with just 1:19 left. Jackson also ran for a two-point conversion.

Jackson finished with 112 rushing yards, just 13 yards fewer than Georgia netted as a team on the ground. Wade Hill quarterbacked the Hogs and threw for 122 yards but suffered the five interceptions.

Zeier was brilliant for Georgia, completing 18 of his 28 passes for 228 yards. Hastings made four catches for 94 yards. Georgia's big plays were the difference as Arkansas finished with seven more first downs than the Bulldogs.

CARQUEST BOWL

N. Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
Miami, Fla. - December 30, 1995

1995

An 87-yard pass play from a scrambling Mike Thomas to L. C. Stevens late in the third quarter proved to be the decisive play as North Carolina earned a 20-10 CarQuest Bowl victory over Arkansas.

The Tar Heels led 14-10 at the time in a game dominated by both defenses. Thomas was flushed out of the pocket by Razorback defensive end Steven Conley and narrowly avoided a sack before floating the game winner to Stevens.

Arkansas had scored on its first possession when Barry Lunney fired a 25-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Lucas to cap a 78-yard march. The Tar Heels answered with a 53-yard drive that Thomas finished with an 18-yard scoring pass to Darrin Ashford.

It was still 7-7 in the third quarter when Todd Latourette kicked a 26-yard field goal to give the Hogs their lead back. However, a 28-yard touchdown run by Leon Johnson gave North Carolina the lead and the long pass three minutes later iced the victory.

The Hogs had the advantage in first downs (26-20) but suffered three turnovers while North Carolina had none. Senior Marius Johnson rushed for 136 yards on 29 carries. It was the third straight bowl appearance for Arkansas in which a back ran for at least 100 yards.

Lunney passed for 227 yards but was intercepted twice and sacked five times. Arkansas managed to sack Thomas just once.

FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL

Michigan 45, Arkansas 31
Orlando, Fla. - January 1, 1999

1999

Arkansas overcame a two-touchdown halftime deficit with three unanswered scores and led defending national champion Michigan 31-24 early in the fourth quarter before the Wolverines took advantage of a punt return and an interception to pin the Razorbacks with a 45-31 defeat in front of 63,584 fans at the Florida Citrus Bowl.

In the first meeting ever between the schools, Michigan roared to a 24-10 lead and was driving inside Arkansas territory when Melvin Bradley forced a fumble by Anthony Thomas and David Barrett recovered for the Razorbacks at his own 29. Hog quarterback Clint Stoerner marched his team to the Michigan two and Chrys Chukwuma bulled into the end zone from there.

On Michigan's next possession, Jeremy Flowers intercepted a pass and returned it to the Wolverine seven. Chukwuma carried three times, blasting into the end zone from the one on his final try to tie the game. Another turnover led to Arkansas' go-ahead score. Zac Painter ran 24 yards with an interception to the Michigan 11. Two plays later Stoerner hit Joe Dean Davenport with a nine-yard touchdown pass to make it 31-24.

Michigan answered with an 80-yard scoring drive that Thomas completed with a one-yard scoring plunge. Arkansas failed to respond with a first down, and a short punt and 14-yard return set up the Wolverines on the Hog 35. On third-and-seven Michigan quarterback Tom Brady found DiAllo Johnson with a 21-yard scoring strike to put his team in front for good.

On Arkansas' next possession, a Stoerner pass was hanging on the shoulder pad of a receiver when Michigan's James Whitley grabbed it and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. With just 1:47 remaining, the issue had been decided.

Arkansas earned 348 yards against a stingy Michigan defense but suffered two interceptions and both were returned for touchdowns. Chukwuma rushed for 56 yards on 17 carries. Stoerner completed just 17 of his 42 passes for 232 yards and two touchdowns. He was sacked three times. Michael Williams caught seven passes for 90 yards but Anthony Lucas was held to 63 yards on three receptions.

Brady hit 14 of his 27 passes for 209 yards and was sacked twice. Thomas finished with 132 yards on 21 carries and scored three of Michigan's touchdowns.

COTTON BOWL Arkansas 27, Texas 6 2000 Dallas, Texas – January 1, 2000

A rivalry born in 1894 and discontinued when Arkansas left the Southwest Conference following the 1991 season was reborn on the first day of the year 2000 when the Razorbacks shocked old nemesis Texas, 27-6, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

In more than 100 years of football the Longhorns never had been held to negative rushing yardage but it happened in the Cotton Bowl as the Razorbacks used a season-high eight quarterback sacks to hold Texas to minus 27 yards on the ground. It was the first time the Hogs held a bowl opponent to minus rushing yardage.

Freshman Cedric Cobbs also established a bowl first for Arkansas. He snapped a 3-3 tie in the third quarter when he took Clint Stoerner's lob pass and turned it into a 30-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter he sparked a 17-point Razorback avalanche with a 37-yard sprint down the sidelines. He became the first Hog ever to score rushing and pass receiving touchdowns in the same bowl game.

Cobbs was the game's outstanding offensive player after rushing for 98 yards on just 15 carries. Senior lineman D.J. Cooper was the game's outstanding defensive player after making five tackles, including two of the quarterback sacks.

The first half was a defensive struggle with field goals by Arkansas' Tony Dodson and Texas' Kris Stockton producing the only points. Cobbs' first touchdown was set up by a 47-yard bomb from Stoerner to Anthony Lucas from the Hog one yard line. Trailing 10-3, Texas marched back to the Arkansas one but was stopped on three consecutive plays before calling on Stockton for a second field goal.

Arkansas quickly retaliated with an 86-yard drive that finished when Michael Jenkins bolted 42 yards for a score. After Cobbs scored again, Dodson kicked another field goal and the victory was secured.

It was only the third time Arkansas held a bowl opponent without a touchdown. It happened in a 0-0 tie with LSU in the 1947 Cotton Bowl and in a 16-2 Sugar Bowl triumph over Georgia in 1969. The victory ended a seven-bowl game losing streak for the Razorbacks and was the first bowl win for coach Houston Nutt.

LAS VEGAS BOWL UNLV 31, Arkansas 14 2000 Las Vegas, Nev. – Dec. 21, 2000

Playing on its home field, UNLV rallied from a 14-7 second-quarter deficit to score 24 unanswered points as the Rebels (8-5) defeated Arkansas (6-6), 31-14, in Las Vegas Bowl IX before a crowd of 29,113 at Sam Boyd Stadium.

UNLV quarterback Jason Thomas completed 12 of 17 passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Nate Turner and a 54-yard strike to Troy Mason that broke a 14-14 tie in the third quarter. Thomas earned most valuable player honors for the Rebels while Turner recorded a game-high eight receptions for 126 yards.

Arkansas took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Robby Hampton threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Rod Stinson on the game's opening drive.

The Rebels tied the game at 7-7 early in the second quarter on Thomas' 19-yard touchdown pass to Turner. Arkansas answered on the ensuing drive when Hampton connected with Boo Williams on a 25-yard touchdown pass for a 14-7 UA lead. Williams, who was named Arkansas' most valuable player in the game, caught seven passes for 97 yards in his final game as a Razorback.

UNLV took the lead for good on Mason's 54-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter while the Rebel defense held the Razorbacks scoreless in the second half. UNLV put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter on Thomas' six-yard touchdown run and an 18-yard rush by Kevin Brown.

The victory was the fourth in a row for a UNLV team that rallied from a 4-5 record earlier in the season. Arkansas' loss denied the Razorbacks their third consecutive winning season and snapped UA's seven-game winning streak against non-conference foes.

Arkansas, which was also 4-5 earlier in the season, ended the regular season with upsets of nationally ranked Mississippi State and LSU to earn its third bowl appearance in as many seasons under Nutt. It is the first time UA has made three consecutive bowl trips since the 1987, 1988 and 1989 seasons.

The next scoreboard tally didn't come until the opening drive of the second half when the Sooners capped a 65-yard drive with a 32-yard field goal by Duncan to extend the lead to 10-0.

Arkansas culminated its only sustained offensive drive of the day midway through the final period as O'Donohoe nailed a 32-yard field goal to close the OU lead to 10-3. The Razorback defense responded and gave the UA offense a pair of opportunities to drive for the winning score, but OU All-American Rocky Calmus forced a fumble from UA signal caller Matt Jones in the final two minutes to halt the Hogs' last hope.

COTTON BOWL

Oklahoma 10, Arkansas 3

2002

In a battle of two stingy defenses, the No. 10 and defending national champion Oklahoma Sooners outlasted the Arkansas Razorbacks, 10-3, in the 66th annual SBC Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day.

Oklahoma (11-2) went to halftime with a 7-0 lead and held on for a 10-3 victory over Arkansas (7-5) in front of more than 70,000 fans at historic Cotton Bowl Stadium. The Sooners kept the UA offense off balance all day including earning a bowl record nine sacks.

Oklahoma's Quentin Griffin earned offensive player of the game honors after rushing for 56 yards on 19 carries while Sooners' strong safety Roy Williams earned outstanding defensive player of the game honors after totaling six stops including three tackles for loss.

Arkansas managed only 50 yards of total offense on the afternoon and completed its only scoring drive of the day with a fourth-quarter field goal from Brennan O'Donohoe.

The Hogs struggled to get the running game going against the OU defense posting 37 yards on 42 carries. Arkansas completed two of 13 passes for 13 yards and an interception.

Arkansas' defense kept the Hogs in the game until late in the fourth quarter. OU rushed 34 times for only 56 yards. The UA defense earned

MUSIC CITY BOWL

Minnesota 29, Arkansas 14
Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 30, 2002

2002

Arkansas got off to a good start, scoring on its first possession, but the Razorbacks, who made a living off opponent turnovers during the year, turned the ball over four times as Minnesota posted a 29-14 victory in the Music City Bowl at Nashville.

The Southeastern Conference Western Division champion Razorbacks led the league and ranked 11th in the nation with a +17 turnover margin, but failed to get a single miscue from the Golden Gophers.

George Wilson capped a 74-yard drive on the game's first possession with a two-yard scoring pass from Matt Jones, but Minnesota (8-5) got four straight field goals from Dan Nystrom to take a 12-7 lead at the half.

Neither offense did much through most of the third period, but UM's Asad Abdul-Khaliq found Ben Utecht for a 19-yard score with 2:44 left in the quarter to give Minnesota a 19-7 advantage. Nystrom added another field goal early in the fourth quarter and Thomas Tapeh put the game out of reach with a 33-yard scoring run with 7:49 to play. Tapeh finished with 99 yards on 19 carries.

Ryan Sorahan came in for Jones, who was 12 of 24 for 119 yards and two interceptions, and led the Razorbacks on a 71-yard scoring drive, hitting Richard Smith for a 10-yard TD.

Arkansas, which averaged 218.9 rushing yards per game for the year, was held to 80 yards on 31 attempts. George Wilson had a career-high matching eight receptions and went over the 100-yard mark for the third time in his career with 111 yards.

UA was held to 288 yards of total offense. Minnesota had 434 yards with 266 coming through the air and 168 on the ground.

Free safety Ken Hamlin had a team-high nine tackles in his last game as a Razorback.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL Arkansas 27, Missouri 14 Shreveport, La. - Dec. 31, 2003

For just the second time in 18 years, Arkansas capped its season with a bowl victory as the Razorbacks recorded a 27-14 win over Missouri in the Independence Bowl, but for the second time in consecutive seasons, the Hogs finished with nine wins.

Arkansas rushed for 300 yards and the defense forced three turnovers as UA won a bowl game for the second time in five years.

Offensive Most Valuable Player Cedric Cobbs rushed for 141 yards on 27 carries, and his 41-yard TD capped a big second quarter which gave Arkansas a 21-7 halftime lead.

Missouri (8-5) got within 24-14 at the end of the third quarter, but the Hogs shut out the Tigers in the fourth period while Chris Balseiro booted his fourth field goal of the game for the final margin. Balseiro's four field goals set an Arkansas bowl record.

DeCori Birmingham added 85 yards on 10 carries for UA while quarterback Matt Jones ran for 74 on seven rushes. Jones was six of 14 passing for 49 yards. Ryan Sorahan was perfect on three attempts for 36 yards.

Missouri's Zack Abron, who scored on a one-yard run to give the Tigers a 7-3 lead, ran for 137 yards on 19 carries. Quarterback Brad Smith ran for 96 yards and a score on 20 carries, and was 17 of 30 passing for 155 yards with an interception.

Caleb Miller, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, made 16 tackles. Jimmy Beasley and Keith Jackson recorded seven stops each. Tom Crowder blocked a punt and intercepted a pass in the win.

CAPITAL ONE BOWL
Wisc. 17, Arkansas 14
Orlando, Fla., January 1, 2007

Arkansas' Darren McFadden broke free on his first carry and raced into the Wisconsin secondary, but defensive back Jack Ikegwuonu did what few players have — he ran down McFadden at the 9-yard line.

That summed up the Capital One Bowl for sixth-ranked Wisconsin. With its running game stifled and its quarterback under constant pressure, the Badgers did just enough to hold off No. 12 Arkansas 17-14.

John Stocco threw two first-half touchdown passes and Wisconsin survived despite being held to minus-5 yards rushing. The Badgers (12-1) held McFadden, the Heisman Trophy runner-up, to 89 yards on the ground, and the Razorbacks (10-4) couldn't overcome an undisciplined, mistake-filled performance.

Wisconsin won 12 games in a season for the first time and finished with a nine-game winning streak, although this was the Badgers' first win over a ranked team.

McFadden's 45-yard run gave the Razorbacks the ball inside the Wisconsin 10 on the game's first series, but Arkansas came away with no points when Jeremy Davis missed a 30-yard field goal.

Taylor Mehlhaff opened the scoring for the Badgers with a 52-yard field goal, a career long and a Capital One Bowl record. Felix Jones answered quickly for Arkansas with a 76-yard touchdown run.

Stocco threw touchdown passes of 22 yards to Paul Hubbard and 13 yards to Travis Beckum, giving the Badgers a 17-7 halftime lead. Jones, who quietly surpassed 1,000 yards this season alongside McFadden, made it 17-14 on a 12-yard run in the fourth.

Jones finished with a career-high 150 yards on 14 carries, outplaying McFadden and Wisconsin's P.J. Hill, two 1,500-yard rushers. Hill ran for 36 yards on 19 carries.

Most of the second half was played in Wisconsin territory, but Arkansas couldn't capitalize. The Razorbacks finished with 12 penalties for 123 yards.

Stocco, the game's most valuable player, went 14-of-34 for 206 yards with two interceptions. That was more passing production than Arkansas could manage. The Razorbacks stuck with their plan to start Casey Dick at quarterback and bring in freshman Mitch Mustain for the third series. That was Mustain's only appearance of the first half, although he returned for a bit in the second.

Dick went 9-of-21 for 98 yards with an interception. Mustain was 5-of-10 for 41 yards with an interception.

The Razorbacks appeared to make a big play on special teams in the second quarter when Darius Vinnett blocked Ken DeBauche's punt. But DeBauche was able to pick up the ball and throw for a first down. The play was negated by an ineligible man downfield penalty, but Wisconsin got to punt again — costing Arkansas about 50 yards of field position.

COTTON BOWL
Missouri 38, Arkansas 7

In a matchup of Heisman Trophy finalists, Darren McFadden and Chase Daniel, at the 72nd AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, it was Missouri tailback Tony Temple who put in a record-breaking performance in front of 73,114 fans. The senior back tallied 281 yards on the ground and four rushing touchdowns, both Cotton Bowl records, to lead No. 7 Missouri to a 38-7 win over the No. 25 Razorbacks.

McFadden finished the day with 105 rushing yards and one touchdown on 21 carries. During the game, the junior tailback moved into second place on the all-time Southeastern Conference rushing list passing LSU's Kevin Faulk. McFadden ended his junior season with 4,590 career rushing yards. His 2007 season rushing total of 1,830 yards is second all-time on the SEC single-season list.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

LIBERTY BOWL | UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS | THE UNIVERSITY

We Prepare Students to Succeed

At the University of Arkansas, we strive for excellence in everything we do, and we achieve it with nationally ranked academic programs as well as with our athletic teams. Here, successful students will join with other graduates to succeed as business executives, scientists, engineers, teachers, writers and Olympians.

Arkansas' true success is measured by its students. In the past 10 years, Arkansas has brought home more than its share of the nation's most prestigious undergraduate awards. In 2001-2002 the University of Arkansas was the only public or private institution in the country to have Rhodes, Marshall, Goldwater, Udall, NSF and James Madison recipients in the same academic year. The university continues each year to add to the overall total of highly competitive post-graduate awards won by Arkansas students. Walk through campus on Senior Walk. It features the names of all our graduates -- more than 120,000 of them. You will immediately feel connected to the pride, quality and tradition that go with an Arkansas degree.

World-Class Faculty

At Arkansas, excellence begins in the classrooms and laboratories. Faculty members value research and the creation of knowledge, knowing that investigating the unknown translates into first-rate teaching. They publish nearly 100 books each year, participate in conferences around the world, file patents for their innovative projects and win prestigious honors and awards.

World-Class Facilities

Over $700 million in construction projects were completed on campus in the past 10 years, are now under construction or are in the planning stages. These include plans to upgrade or renovate several of our historic buildings. The university is also engaged in an ambitious program to improve the energy efficiency of 35 of our buildings, in an on-going effort to create a sustainable campus.

World-Class Support

Investment in the future is critical, and the unprecedented Campaign for the Twenty-First Century that concluded in 2006 resulted in a $1 billion dollar infusion of gifts to the University of Arkansas. The effort included the largest single gift to a U.S. public university in the history of American philanthropy: a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Trust. Primary among the programs created by the Walton gift was the designation of $200 million toward the establishment of the Honors College.

That kind of commitment from the state and the region is not uncommon. It was the effort of the city of Fayetteville and Washington County in submitting the highest bid to the state in the 1870s that resulted in the University of Arkansas opening its doors here on Jan. 22, 1872.

The University of Arkansas is one of America's leading land-grant universities, and despite tough economic times nationwide, Chancellor G. David Gearhart is optimistic: "There has never been a better time to be a student at the University of Arkansas."

The students and faculty have never been more academically accomplished, the university's facilities have never been more sophisticated and the research done on campus has never been more innovative. The more than 19,000 students have satisfied the highest academic standards in the university's history, while also being the most diverse student body ever on campus.

The 2009-2010 academic year will be very challenging for everyone in higher education, especially students and their families, but the University of Arkansas is in a strong position to meet those challenges. The University avoided increasing student tuition for the first time in 24 years, thanks to careful budgeting and generous financial support from the state of Arkansas, alumni and university donors, as well as from the Department of Athletics. Chancellor Gearhart has also placed a priority on providing more scholarship support for students who are struggling to afford a university education.

The University of Arkansas, as a land-grant university, strives to fulfill a three-fold mission of teaching, research and service. The Fayetteville campus also serves as the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas system, which includes branch universities and the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. The University of Arkansas, as lead campus, serves as the state's major center of professional education, as the state's main source of theoretical and applied research and as a major engine for economic growth.
